

the capacity of their works and will erect buildings costing $200,000.

WHITBY, ONT.—The Keystone Sugar Co. expect to commence work on their factory at an early date. James Fowler is managing director.

ST. ANDREWS, N.B.—The Department of Marine, Ottawa, will shortly call for tenders for a $5,000 substructure for the lighthouse near this place.

LADYSMITH, B. C.—At a public meeting last week it was decided to proceed with the scheme of securing an electric lighting system for this place.

OWEN SOUND, ONT.—J. C. Forster, architect, has completed plans for a two-storey building for municipal purposes to be built on the Market square.

WATERLOO, QUE.—A. F. Savaria has made a proposition to the Council to erect a three-storey knitting factory 200 x 70 feet in return for a bonus of $30,000.

GANANOQUE, ONT.—S. McCammon, Town Clerk, desires tenders by Monday, September 4th, for laying house sewer connections and waterworks services.

NORTH BUXTON, ONT.—William F. Moore will receive tenders up to September 2nd for concrete foundation 40 x 60 feet and for raising the B.M.E. church.

BRACEBRIDGE, ONT.—The vote on the by-laws to build a bridge and macadamize Manitoba street resulted in the passing of the former and the defeat of the latter.

MALAKOFF, ONT.—Bids desired by James Meredith by Saturday, 26th inst., for purchase of $5,112.88 20-year 5 per cent. drainage debentures of Township of Marlborough.

ARCOLA, N. W. T.—The ratepayers have requested that the Town Council raise a further sum of $4,500 by debentures to be added to the funds for building a town hall.

WINCHESTER, ONT.—Dunn & Fullarton, engineers, will receive tenders up to Friday, September 8th, for construction of the Quart drain; estimate of excavation, 3,500 yards.

MANDAN, MAN.—Tenders for erection of municipal hall at Sanford will be received by John Cuddy up to 30th inst. Plans by Frank R. Evans, architect, Winnipeg.

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, MAN.—The Manitoba Iron Works Co. want tenders by 31st inst. for labor and material required in the brick work of the boiler for the pumping station.

GARRYOWEN, ONT.—J. G. Campbell, Reeve, desires bids by Saturday, 26th inst., for construction of concrete abutments for bridge over the Big Head river north of village of Boznos.

STURGEON FALLS, ONT.—A by-law to raise $35,000 by debentures to consolidate the floating debt and provide funds for town buildings will be submitted to the ratepayers September 20th.

PENTICTON, B.C.—The Southern Okanagan Land Co. are about to construct irrigation work, including a 32-inch pipe line about a mile long and a dam at the head waters of Penticton creek.

HESPELER, ONT.—The R. Forbes Company, woolen manufacturers, intend building a dam to replace their old one. John S. Fielding, C.E., Toronto, is the consulting engineer. The dam will likely be of concrete.

HULL, QUE.—The Montreal Powder Co. have commenced the erection of their factory.—A by-law to raise $45,000 by debentures for improvements to the waterworks system has been sanctioned by the ratepayers.

DALHOUSIE, N.B.—Willis Chipman, C.E., Toronto, will shortly submit his report on waterworks, sewerage and electric light systems for this place.—The Dominion Government intend building a new wharf here.

CHATHAM, ONT.—The School Board propose to issue debentures for $19,500, $6,000 of which is for the extension of the Central school, $4,000 for sanitary improvements to McKeough school and $5,500 for heating systems.

BROCKVILLE, ONT.—B. Dillon, architect, will receive tenders up to 24th inst., for carpentry, plastering, hot water heating, plumbing, painting and glazing required in remodelling the third storey of the Harding block.

VICTORIA, B.C.—Thomas D. Sedger, architect, has prepared plans for a frame bungalow to be built on Clarence street by J. M. Johnston.—It is reported that the C. P. R. are considering the addition of another wing to the hotel now in course of construction.

ST. BONIFACE, MAN.—T. Bertrand, Town Clerk, wants tenders by 25th inst. for erection of a town hall. Plans prepared by V. W. Horwood, architect, Winnipeg, may be seen at the office of Cecil Goddard, C.E.—It is probable that plans will again be requested for new fire hall for Norwood.

LONDON, ONT.—Tenders are invited up to August 30th for repairs to No. 1 Government drain, Delaware. Plans at office of F. W. Farncomb, Township Engineer, this city.—It is reported that A. J. Small has under consideration a proposition to erect a new theatre in the city.

GUELPH, ONT.—The tenders received for new buildings at the Ontario Agricultural College for farm, mechanical and technical education and residences are in excess of the estimated cost and the plans may be modified and new tenders invited.

FREDERICTON, N.B.—The City Council have decided to engage F. A. Barbour, C.E., of Boston, to report upon the possibility of obtaining a water supply by gravitation.—The City Engineer is taking a survey of the city in connection with proposed installation of a sewerage system.

GODERICH, ONT.—M.O. Johnston, Town Clerk, requests tenders by August 31st for construction of 6,800 square feet of granolithic sidewalk and crossings.—A meeting of the Goderich Elevator & Transit Co. will be held this week to arrange for the raising of $25,000 for building an elevator.

TORONTO JUNCTION, ONT.—T. J. Smyth will build a $4,000 residence on Annette street.—The following building permits have been granted: A. Richardson, brick house on Humberstone avenue, to cost $2,500; W. H. Cummings, brick and stone house, Willoughby avenue, cost $1,800; S. W. Edgers, brick house on Davenport road, cost $2,400.

PETERBORO, ONT.—None of the tenders have as yet been accepted for new All Saints church.—The Peterboro Cereal Co. are having plans prepared for erection of an elevator 50 x 50 feet, to be built this fall. The company will also build an addition to the east side of their mill on Simcoe street, in which will be installed machinery for turning out oatmeal and rolled wheat.

WELLAND, ONT.—The Plymouth Cordage Co. have completed the purchase of the land for their proposed buildings, which will be built of reinforced concrete. The main building will be 600 feet long. Besides, there will be a picker building, machine shop, storage warehouses, etc., and it is probable that about 50 houses will also be built by the company.

MONTREAL, QUE.—Architects are requested to submit plans by September 11th for the construction of a cafe and terrace in Mount Royal park, cost not to exceed $15,000. Particulars from L. O. David, City Clerk.—Tenders are being taken up to September 15th for the construction of the western section of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway.

ST. CATHARINES, ONT.—Bids requested by William A. Mittleberger, City Treasurer, up to September 4th, for purchase of $50,000 20-year 4 per cent. debentures.—Tenders are invited by the Department of Railways and Canals, Ottawa, up to 30th inst., for the supply and erection of four transmission line towers on the Welland canal. Plans at the office of the Superintending Engineer.

DUNDAS, ONT.—R. T. Wilson will erect a business building on King street.—W. R. Bennett has bought two lots on Victoria street on which to build residences.—C. C. Palmer intends building a residence.—It is reported that John Bertram & Sons have amalgamated with several American firms and a moulding shop costing $100,000 will be built here immediately.

BRANTFORD, ONT.—Preliminary plans for the surface drainage of the city have been submitted by Willis Chipman, C.E., Toronto.—Representatives of the Bell Telephone Co. were in the city last week in connection with the proposed new building.—James Cahill will build a brick residence on Nelson street, cost $1,300.—The Water Commissioners have decided to adopt the meter system for all residences.

OTTAWA, ONT.—F. Goudreau, Deputy Minister of Marine and Fisheries, will receive tenders up to September 11th for fog alarm machinery.—It is understood that the management of the Russell House have decided upon plans for interior improvements to be carried out this year and a 12-story addition to be built next year. Two modern elevators will be installed.—Extensive plans for the improvement of the system of lighthouses along the Atlantic seaboard have been decided upon by the Marine Department.

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Parr & Fee, architects, have taken tenders for a three storey and basement building to be erected on Seymour street, near Dunsmuir, for A. M. Forbes & Co.—J. H. Hanbury, of Brandon, is considering the erection of a grist mill and grain elevator here.—Dalton & Eveleigh, architects, are preparing plans for a three-storey hotel to be built on the southwest corner of Homer and Cordova streets, hot water heating, hydraulic elevators, cost $20,000.—William Bailey has purchased six lots on Keith road, North Vancouver, and intends building a fine residence.—P. F. Emerson, of this city, intends building a large saw mill at Greenway Channel, about 125 miles up the coast.

HAMILTON, ONT.—The City Engineer has outlined a scheme to overcome the difficulty caused by flooding. He proposes to establish a system to carry away the storm waters, at an approximate cost of $21,000. He estimates the cost of providing a sewerage system in the east end annex at about $28,000.—The following building permits were granted last week: R. & J. Poag, brick residence, corner Robert and Mary streets, cost $2,000; Dr. Griffin, ten brick residences, Milton ave., cost $15,000; B. Richardson, brick building, King street, between Ferguson ave. and Jarvis street, cost $1,200; H. E. Hawkins, Limited, brick store, Barton street, between Gilson and Earl streets, cost $3,450; Daniel Sullivan, brick residence, Murray street, cost $2,000.