ADVERTISE IN THE ADVOCATE

STOCK GOSSIP.

The attention of our readers is directed to the new advertisement of Messrs. Simmons & Quirie, which appears in this issue.

Thomas Shannon, Cloverdale, B. C.—"Our sales during the fall have been as follows:—One boar, Alex. Lochore, Lytton, B. C.; one boar, John York, North Arm, B. C.; one sow, Mackie Bros., Eburne, B. C.; one boar, Tolmie Estate, Victoria, B. C.; one boar, H. F. Page, Mission City, B. C.; one boar, John Wade, Elgin, B. C.; one sow, W. Brown, Clover Valley, B. C.; one boar, Oppenheimer Bros., Langley Prairie, B. C. James McCormick & Son, Rockton, Ont.—"Our Ayrshires are doing nicely. We are having a great many inquiries for young bulls and heifers. Have sold the fine young bull, Grand Duke, to Mr. R. E. White, of Perth. He is from the famous old cow, Primrose 6th, winner of first for cow and two of her progeny at the last Industrial Fair, and she is the dam of Primrose 6th, the first prize cow in the aged class, and his sire is Sir Laughlin, winner of first prize and sweepstake at the Industrial Fair. We have several young bulls on hand yet, among them being Guy Fox, winner of second prize at Toronto. This is a very fine bull, and if he keeps on improving will soon beat his illustrious sire, Sir Laughlin."

John Pike & Sons, Locust Hill—"Our Improved Large Yorkshire breeding sows and young pigs are all in good condition. We have a fine lot of 126 now on hand from one to six months old—a choice selection of home-bred boars and sows. Our prices are as low as they can be made. Our first object is to supply the trade with the ideal bacon hog, and we are satisfied the Yorkshire pays both the feeder and the packer. Mr. Wm. Davies, pork packer, Toronto, stated to us a few years ago that the Improved Large Yorkshire suited his purpose in every particular in supplying his customers. We, on an average, have bred and fed for three years past 300 hogs each year. We have always on hand a fine lot to choose from, so that breeders who come and see them very seldom go away without securing one or more."

NOTICE.

AN EXPLANATION. To our many friends who have written us personally to the Grange, 126 King street, and have received no answer, we would explain that we notified the President of the Grange Co. on Oct. 1st that we wished to withdraw from that company, and on Oct. 10th they settled with me, on the condition that I would not enter into business in opposition to them, nor advertise against them, and that I would hand all mail matter sent to me in connection with the Grange over to them until Jan. 1st. Now, January 1st has come, and we will be delighted to renew our acquaintance with you as manager of the People's Wholesale Supply Co. on the same terms as quoted in our last catalogue from the Grange. But we will be able to give you better prices on almost every line. We have no old stock, but have a full line of new goods, which were never offered cheaper than we will be pleased to sell them to you at. Kindly send us a trial order for anything you may need. Wishing you a happy New Year, we are, yours respectfully, R. Y. MANNING, Manager, 35 Colborne street, Toronto.
