JULY 12, 1918

rounds them with an immense dignity." Making every allowance for poetic fervor, this surely proclaims a great fact. Nor is the testimony of Havelock Ellis, in his book, "The Soul of Spain" (1908) less warm. "All the old Spanish traditions." he writes. "show that the women of this race require much wooing." A certain reserve, corresponding to their extreme sobriety, seems to lie in the temperament of the people. This proud reticence, the absence of any easy erethic response to masculine advances, is the probable source of that erotic superiority of women which has often been noted as a characteristic of Spain ; and is indeed symbolized in the profound Spanish worship of the Virgin Mary." A greater asset no race could possess, and it renders the proudest boast as to material progress the merest tinsel in comparison.

THE MOVEMENT on foot to establish a Catholic club or a hotel in London which might serve as a rallying place for Catholics from all over the world is one that, under the auspices the appeal is made, can scarcely fail of al opportunities for our Catholic realization. Cardinal Bourne, who is youth, eminently a practical man, has given it his support, and with him practically all the Bishops of England. But while under ecclesiastical patronage, the scheme has been fathered by laymen, among them men known almost as well abroad as in their own country. London yet remains the world's chief city, and to it yearly flock multitudes from every country under the sun. Yet, writes a correspondent of a leading English journal, a Catholic visiting London from abroad has no centre to which he can resort for the company or association of his brothers in the Faith. He is overwhelmed by a Protestant atmosphere. With a few notable exceptions Catholic churches are hidden away in by-streets, and enquiry even of London's world-famous police often fails to elicit satisfactory information. All this accentuates the need of such a centre as that projected, and the appeal which is being made to Catholics over-seas should find a ready acquiescence. The Salisbury Hotel in Fleet Street has already been bespoken, and, as the prospectus informs us, sufficient co-operation been secured to place the project within easy distance of realization.

BISHOP FALLON GONE TO ROME

Previous to his departure for Europe as chaplain of one of the McGrane tours His Lordship Bishop Fallon of London was presented with an illuminated address from the laity of the diocese. The address was a work of art which was greatly admired. It was executed by one of the Ladies of the Ursuline Con-Chatham. The signatures to the address represented every parish in the diocese and numbered twelve thousand names. The presentation place at St. Peter's Palace. Senator Coffey read the document ripe and the laborers few, and may and Judge J. O. Dromgole presented the work to His Lordship. Other laity present were : Messrs. E. I. Scully, of Windsor, representing the out-of-town parishes; C. J. Fitz-gerald, Capt. T. J. Murphy, Captain gerald, Capt. 1. 5. Marphy, Captann Manley, William McPhillips, W. G. Coles, Philip Pocock, sr., Joseph Pevler, W. T. Pace, William Regan, Joseph Moralee, Joseph Leach, Joseph Crummey, John P. Forristal, John M. Doyle, R. M. Burns, J. V. Flanagan, H. R. Dignan, Stephen Pocock, Joseph Pocock, Dr. Claude Brown, Dr. Tillmann, Frank Smith, Joseph Nolan, Thomas White and Martin O'Sullivan.

temporal, in the things that make for good in the Catholic Church, and for a higher, better, wider, nobler citizenship of the great Dominion in which we live. You have made the name of Catholic an honored name, you have, on every and all occasions, when we were privileged to hav you come amongst us, infused a spirit of manly Catholicity and of sturdy faith. In a word, we recog nize the admirable influence for good against libelous articles you have exerted in your people in this your fair diocese. You came to us with an inter education.

genuine lay apostles. The resolu tions were proposed by some earnest member and carried with a hurrah. national reputation in the cause of We knew, for we could not That was all right and they were but know, your fatherly love for the ust the kind of resolutions that a little ones of your flock, and the earnest Catholic society should pass. But resolutions are, after all, only highinterest that is yours in everything that touches their welfare. Promp ed by that love for them. Inspire Prompt sounding words until put into effect, and only too often they remain on by your devotion to the sacred cause of Catholic education, and guided by the records of the society as an orna-Why is this so? ment. valuable experience, you have ensimply a case of what has been characterized in the well known set deavored by every means in your power to raise the standard of educa your of cartoons, "Let George do it.' tion in this province. In that cour The members of the society, when they voted upon the resolutions really meant what they said, but ageous, single purposed endeavor you have the whole hearted support, the sympathy and the gratitude of your people. We wish similarly to refer in terms of genuine appreciathey forgot that it is one thing to be brave in the midst of friends, quite another thing to show the same spirit when alone and in face of the tion and unstinted praise founding of a school for boys in your And it so often happens that a cathedral city. The need of such an institution is unquestioned. The lew days later, when at the noon hour a loud-mouthed blusterer be time is ripe for broadened education gins to prate about the Church, telling what he thinks he knows, one of and, while congratulating the members, fearing to get the you on the inception of this school worst of the ensuing argument does not correct him. He lets it pass, we assure you of our appreciation of its importance and wish it the sucwaiting "for George to do it." An-other member reads in his morning cess which it truly deserves. paper a false statement about Catho

We view with pride the parochial residences and the numerous churches you have built throughout lic doctrine. He is angry and feels like writing a protest to the editor, but he waits and "leaves it to your diocese. No spiritual need of your people has been overlooked. They have found in you always the provident spiritual father, with a George." So it goes on and the re-sult is that no one takes up the de fence of truth. All "leave it for teen insight into the needs of your George" and the "George" in the people and a zeal which finds remedy case is the already overburdened those needs and blending into priest, whose protest is not nearly so one the qualities that are met in a efficacious as that of the busines the Church of God. The ruler of man known to the editor of the coming, too, of two religious compaper as a subscriber and advertiser munities to your diocese, the Com-munity of the Holy Redeemer and This is not as it should be. It would cost but a little time to send in a the Sisters of the Precious Blood, protest or to make a suitable reply augurs well for a growth in holiness to calumniators of the Church an an increase of spirituality and awak might do a whole lot of good. ened piety among your people, aris-ing from the influence and prayers of Many a man has had his atten tion turned to the faith by a vigor hose devoted servants of God. ous reply to an attack against relig

But if among the achievements that have been yours since your coming amongst us we may be privi leged to choose one work as your crowning glory, that has in a specia way the support of our prayers, has inspired the warmth of enthusiasm in our hearts and to which we point with pardonable pride, it is the institution of your diocesan Theological Seminary in the diocese of Lon don. There is no need for us to say that you have our heartfelt and enthusiastic support. Young and old, and those of every condition in your liocese, have already signified that support, both in word and in deed. have visited our parishes; the parishes have spoken, and may we be permitted to say that it was a to say that it was a generous and a noble response. We have responded freely, cheerfully enthusiastically, nay more, lovingly, to your faith-inspired appeal for St. Peter's Seminary. May its success be unbounded. May young men throughout the generations yet unborn be there taught in great num pers the truths of Holy Faith and the science of the saints. May it send out to us, and to our children. learned, pious, zealous priests to do the work of the Master : may it even extend its beneficent influence to foreign lands where the harvest is

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

"BE IT RESOLVED" previations were also the rage, and to make confusion worse confounded the numerals had to be expressed in CTION OF CATHOLIC SOCIETIES A GOOD DEAL OF A JOKE letters : so, that there is no wonder the poor scribes made mistakes. Spread on the records of many Catholic societies there will be found resolutions to the effect that the "Nowadays, when a book is printed the proofs are carefully read by proof-readers, but even then it is a embers should take a more active part in the work of building up the miracle if a book gets through the press without a blunder ; but when books had to be transcribed, the more Kingdom of Christ, by defending it against wanton attacks, protesting the copies were multiplied the more the errors increased, because each in and magazines, in a word, by being dividual writer contributed his own ersonal liability to blunder. More over, there were scribes who added closses, which were soon incorpor ted in the text by their successors Others were appointed as correctors who not unfrequently inserted errors where there were none before, and finally they were distracted scribes, and sleepy scribes, and hasty scribes all piling up one after the other or simultaneously their mountains of mistakes.

"When printing was invented mat ters grew worse instead of better; for though there are not as many blunders in a printed book as in manuscript copy, yet one mistake is repeated hundreds of thousands of times and scattered to the ends of the earth, and there is no possibility of ever recalling the book for revis You speak with some bitterness, as if you had been a victim of som printer's mishap.'

Indeed, I have, and, like every author. I have seen myself made a fool of by the printers and proofreaders. Who would not be exas perated, for instance, if he found himself describing a gift to a beggan as a great bone, instead of a grea oon, or if his gallant skipper treads the quarter dock, or his holy nun re-' So it goes on and the reoices in her quiet sell?

"Publishers of Protestant Bible have been particularly unfortunate in this respect, though they were usually working under royal patron-age and availing themselves of the scholarship that heterodoxy could provide. Thus, there was a Bible published in 1551 which was popularly called, 'The Bug Bible,' cause instead of Bogeys by night, there appeared in it the words Another Bible ,translated by night by the English exiles in Geneva, was 'The Breeches Bible,' because alled it said that 'our first parents made hemselves breeches of fig leaves another was styled 'The Place makers

Such defence of the Church is pre Bible,' because it assured its readers eminently the work of Catholic lay that blessed were 'the place-makers instead of peace-makers; another was men, but to take it up they must be known as 'The Wicked Bible.' be well grounded in their religion and cause in it appeared the command ment 'Thou shalt commit adultery. above all filled with the apostolic spirit. It is to train men to such The printer was fined 300 pounds for the blunder. 'The Vinegar Bible,' work and to prepare them for an infusion of pentecostal fire that the laymen's retreats have been organwas so called because instead of the parable of the Vineyard, it recounted the parable of the Vinegar. In a earnest consideration of the great published at the end of the truths of faith, fervent prayer and Bibl seventeenth century, King David self-examination have a marvelous complains that he was persecuted by printers' instead of princes. The effect on a man's soul. They mak him realize the value of that faith which is his; they bring home to Unrighteous Bible declared that ' the him the fact that he is a member of unrighteous shall possess the King dom of God.' Finally we have 'The Murderer's Bible.' In the Epistle of that great army fighting under the standard of the cross for the con-version of the world and, above all, St. Jude some one had substituted they fill him with an ardent love for for 'murmurers' the terrible word "murderers.' What penalty was meted out to the offending printers his Leader and King. It is to such nen that the Holy Ghost comes with of the two last perversions is not his gifts as He did to the apostles and those gifts fill men with courage stated. Copying was bad enough, but and zeal. Many of our laymen these gifts badly, and it would when the work of translation began pay them to take a few days from results were appalling. the Augustine complained in his time ousiness for the purpose of making that as soon as any one knew a little one of these retreats. - Cleveland Latin or Greek he immediately set about making a new version of the Bible. But Latin and Greek are comparatively easy ; whereas translating JOHNSON READS THE from Hebrew is particularly perplexing and perilous, not only because of the presence of previous errors in the text, but also because of the MISTAKES IN THE WRITING sides these unintentional errors in honest and approved translations. and approved translations were deliberate falsifications of the text; falsifications which were maliciously devised to throw dis-credit on the Holy Book ?"

Are there any such ?" There certainly are.

"There certainly are. Do you know what the rascally Voltaire did? He wanted to show that the testimany of the Hebrews about every was absolutely worthless. thing And for that reason he set himself to tion of Germany is now living in cities of 100,000 and more, but only show that they were not only a very degraded people, but were actually addicted to cannibalism. Not only did he assert that, but he attempted to prove that their indulgence in the eating of human flesh was actually commanded by the representatives of the Almighty. As proof of his assertion, he informed the world that such a command had been formally issued by the Prophet Ezechiel to the people of Israel on the occasion of a great battle.'

'Did Ezechiel give any foundation for the calumny ?"

"The very reverse. If you turn to awakening the conscience of the people will depend on the trial. Things do not look encouraging in this respect. Medical science and Chap. xxxix, v. 17, you will find that God had commanded him to say to all the fowls, and to all the birds, and to all the beasts of the fields. . . . You shall eat the flesh of the mighty some influence. The state can assist by forbidding the sale of illegal inand shalt drink the blood of the princes of the earth.' In brief, the prophet was bidden to announce that the Hebrews were to be victorious The problem is new and the solution not yet found."—Translation made for the Literary Digest. in battle and that the carcasses of the enemy would strew the field and be the prey of the vultures and wolves. Voltaire made the Hebrews do the eating, whereas, on the contrary, they were bidden to bury the bones and burn the weapons of their foes. If that is cannibalism, then every under taker is guilty of the crime. Don't ead Voltaire's translation. There are too many mistakes in writing. It all goes to show how difficult it has been to keep the copies and translations of the Inspired Text immune from error. Both friends and foes ad to be quarantined. But in spite of the care exerted in the time of ooth the Old and New Testaments some escaped supervision ; the harm was done and the evil effects contin ued century after century.

RELIGION AND BIRTH

RATE

Another country that has begun to worry over its decreasing birth rate is Germany, where an interesting hase of the problem lies in the fac that this decrease is much greate among the Protestants than among the Catholics. In the current dis cussions in the German press the churches of all denominations are called upon to throw their influence against race suicide. The following facts and figures are taken from an article called "What Can We Do to Counteract the Growing Decrease in the Birth Rate ?" by Johannes Kubel in the Christliche Welt (Marburg). "In 1870 there were born in Gernany in every 1,000 population 40.1 children ; in 1910 it was only 29.8 a lecrease of nearly 25 per cent. The decline in the thirty years to 1900 was 3.3 per cent; in the last ten years it was 7 per cent. Since 1901 this percentage of decline has stead. ily grown, it being 2.1 in a single year. Compared with other Euro nean lands, the rate of decline in Germany is the most marked. Thus in the year 1910, the decline of birth rate in Spain was 1.7; in France, 95 . in England and Wales, 5.1 : but in Germany, 6.3, as compared with the figures of ten years before. Germany reports even an absolute as well as relative decline. Since 1898.

regular intervals of ten years, and as recently as January 18, 1908, in the more than two million children were ulation, where Germany has built up Catholic Standard of 1886, both by its its big businesses. Experience has shown that the workingman's family, if it has more than four children, i

One fifth of the Protestant popula

one-seventh of the Catholic contin-read : "Protestantism can unfortunately do little except to preach and to ad-monish. Minister Dr. Kirchner, in the Prussian Diet, recently declared that the Protestant clergy can do less in this matter that the Catholic be cause the latter have that powerful help, private confession and absolu-

the theories of Malthus, must exert struments and medicines. But all these can be only experimental

THE HISTORY OF A

SLANDER

HALF CENTURY OLD FORGERY

BARNETT

Barnett said:

Christian

fit to do.

nate it.

REVIVED BY THE REV. MR.

In the course of his address to in the Reformed Episcopal Church of our Redeemer the Rev. Mr.

"Take these words of the late

We maintain that the Church of Archbishop Ryan, quoted by The Rome is intolerant-that is, she uses

every means in her power to root out has the right to be intolerant, for she tolerates heretics where she is obliged to do so, but she hates them ever the Catholics should become a

States come to an end. Our enemies know how she treated heretics in the Middle Ages, and how she treats them to day where she has the power. We no more think of deny-ing these historic facts than we do of blaming the Holy God and the Princes

of the Church for what they thought

"Send for the Postmaster General!"

exclaimed the Rev. Mr. Barnett iron-ically. Calling attention to the Archbishops alleged admission of "historic facts," the speaker said that he dissemination of such "facts" is the work in which The Menace is engaged, and that is why Catholics

HISTORY OF THE FORGERY

The forgery revived by the Rev.

Mr. Barnett dates back more than fifty-five years, and is an enlarged version of a slander originally gotten up against a St. Louis layman. It has been exposed and denounced at

Just how much can be done in mics, especially in antagonizing

And of the possible remedies

ent.

tion.

inevitably doomed to the proletariat. In addition, the employment of women in factories, the growth of greed for money, the modern culture of women, the fact that the Protestants more than the Catholics flock to th cities, and other reasons are the causes of this condition of affairs present expanded form. in which Judge Bakewell's mutilated sentence is sand wiched between the fabricated additional matter.

It was promptly denounced in the Catholic Standard of August 4, 1888. Boston's Baptist "organ of truth" dragged it out in December, 1907, and exposure followed in The Catholic Standard and Times of Jan uary, 18, 1908.

Now in the year of our Lord 1913, it is read in the Pulpit of the Reform ed Episcopal Church of Our Redeem er, in the City of Brotherly Love, by the Rev. Augustus E. Barnett, former chief recorder of the Guardians of Liberty and lecturer for the Menace. The sheet misnamed the Christian, to which the Rev. Mr. Barnett credits the forgery, is edited by Professor Walter Sims, of Bay City, Michigan, who is lecturer-in-chief of Guardians of Liberty, and who was engaged in the same style of lecturing twenty-five years ago during the American Protective Association agitation. He was then silenced in a joint debate with the late Ignatius Donnelly, and was recently excoriated, after an address in Winona, Minn., by The Leader, a secular journal.— Philadelphia Catholic Standard and Times.

FATHER JOHNSON GOING WEST .

The Island Patriot of Charlottetown informs us that a farewell entertainment was given Rev. Father Orangemen and Knights of Malta Johnston, the Island's poet priest and lecturer, on the eve of his de parture for Charlottetown. An address was read by Mr. Patrick Train or and Mr. Patrick Smith presented the Rev. Father with a well-filled purse. Complimentary in the highest degree were the terms of the address. Father Johnston will take with him to the great west the heresy. But her intolerance is the result of her infallibility. She alone affection and esteem of his parish-ioners in the little Island who have received at his hands for so long a alone has the truth. The Church tender, spiritual care. He will continue the work in a larger field and the pravers and blessings of his with a deadly hatred, and uses all people in the East will a him. her powers to annihilate them. If Father Johnston made a fitting reconsiderable majority, then will religious freedom in the United ply, and expressed his thanks to the League of the Cross Society and the congregation for their kind act of generosity. He also spoke feelingly of the time when he was Spiritual Adviser of the League of the Cross the welfare of which was always dear to his heart.

His Lordship Bishop O'Leary next spoke, and made a feeling reference to Father Johnston's departure, and referred to the many Island priests who have left their native province who by their zealous work for the spiritual welfare of mankind have made their names loved and honored at home and abroad, and predicted a likewise brilliant future for Father Johnson, and wished him God speed. Excellent addresses were also de Maurice McDonald, Mr. D. O. M. Reddin, Mr. Jas. Landrigan, Mr. Alex. McDonald, Mr. J. H. McQuaid and Mr. Jas. McIsaac, expressing their regret at Father Johnston's departure.

FUNERAL DIRECTING

5

ditor and in a published letter Judge Bakewell Then apparently immune to "death from exposure," the libel was found alive in a pretentious book on 'Christianity in the United States.

by Daniel Dorchester, a Protestant "doctor of divinity," who quoted it as a "recent" utterance of Archbishop Ryan. This was its first appearance in its

THE ADDRESS

Right Rev. M. F. Fallon, D. D., Bishop of London :

May it please Your Lordship-Having learned of your intended visit to the eternal city, we, the laity of your diocese, wish to take advantage of this opportunity to extend to you our feelings of filial affection, our genuine respect and faithful devotion

Your advent to this diocese has tion has been due almost entirely to been marked by marvelous achievethe people, who have been most ments. Your name has gone before hearty in their support. It is due to you. Your ability, your learning, your piety, your zeal for the glory of their unbroken generosity and to their love of the Church. I shall be glad when I have an audience with the Church of God, wherein the Holy Ghost then placed you Bishop. the Father of the Faithful to assure You had been but a short time amongst us when we saw for ourhim that the Diocese of London is ever faithful. May his blessing bring selves the realization of the hopes upon you God's blessing and may i those qualities inspired. From the make you all the stronger to work day and the hour of your consecrafor the good of the Church. tion we knew that the welfare of us have heretofore bound me all, and the weal of that portion of bonds of love to you, but to-night you have rivetted those bonds. the Catholic Church over which you came to rule at the bidding of the His Lordship then gave his bless ing to those assembled. Holy Father, were safe in your

The unprecedented impres sion your wonderful personality your recognized ability then created has not been momentarily abated. but rather has it advanced in growing splendor. Catholics or non-Catholics, it matters not, knew then living up to their standard. Woe to them that disdain to humand realize more keenly now, that ble themselves willingly with the of London is not only a little children ; for the low gate of the Bishop champion of the Faith but the courthe heavenly kingdom will not suffer ageous leader in things spiritual or them to enter therein.

the full light of its glory, rise up, as we do now, and call you blessed.

On your setting out across the trackless sea to the eternal city we wish Your Lordship a safe journey and a speedy return to our midst. Our prayers and good wishes will follow you. In return we ask you to remember us at the Holv shrines. Ve ask you to present our love and filial devotion to the Holy Father Pius X., gloriously reigning in the chair of Peter. Tell him that the faith is strong and burning in the Diocese of London, assure him of our loyalty to our Bishop and to Christ's Vicar on earth, and may he grant us, through Your Lordship, his very many." "Not in the Inspired Volume." postolic Blessing, for ourselves, our amilies and our homes

Your devoted faithful laity of the liocese of London. which Moses wrote under divine in The Bishop in reply said : "It spiration." would be unfitting to acknowledge in words what I cannot feel in my heart Have you got it ?" Not I.

You

with

take in it whatever."

"Where is it to be found? In you deserve. What has been achieved in the three years of my administra Bible ?" "No, indeed. It is lost irretrievably The Bibles we now have are mere ly copies, and God did not guarantee

What do you mean ?"

A few days spent in

BIBLE

al meaning of the writer."

"I cordially agree with you, and

But you yourself have shown m

Take, for instance, the book

there are no mistakes in the Inspired ized.

Universe.

igin

Volume

copyists against error. In fact, errors of all kinds immediately began to multiply as soon as the copyists settled down to their work."

Why were they not careful ?" " Because they were only men, an to err is human. It is true that Moses was a man, but he was divinely protected in his work. Moreover. it is very difficult to copy Hebrew cor You have only to glance over rectly.

your shoulder in the trolley at the Yid-dish paper your neighbor is perusing; or you might look at the Yiddish billboard, or try to make out a kosher meat sign, and you will see how bewilderingly like each other Hebrew letters are. It takes a practiced eye to distinguish, for example, a T from an M, or a D from an R, and so for many other of the characters. Moreover, in those days they had not on their desks countless reams of paper as we have, and consequently their chirography was microscopic. Ab-poverty of the Hebrew language." "What effect could that have on a " I hope you are convinced, Friend Johnson, that mistakes may creep translation ?"

into telegrams and books in such 'You see, when a man has only one coat he has to put it on again and way as to completely distort the or again. He has no choice. Now, Of course I am convinced ; but it the Hebrew vocabulary is very lim is quite another matter when there is ited. The word, for instance, which signifies 'brother' stands also for question of the Bible. That is inspired, and there should be no mismany other relationships; for cousin and nephew and near kinsmen, and even for a compatriot. Your Hebrew writer will know from inside information the exact relationship existing. but your Greek translator will put it down simply as adelphos; your Latin, frater; your Spanish scribes will express it by hermano; your French by frere, and your Englishman by brother. This is why Jacob says to Lot: 'You are my sister's son, and Lot :

therefore you are my brother ;' and that is how it happens that Our Lord appears in Holy Scripture as the brother of his cousins.

But are there no translations approved by the Church ? There are; the Latin Vulgate, for example.'

"Does such approbation imply an exactness of translation ?" General exactness, yes; but an exactness that is invariable and exending to the least details, no. fact. certain difficulties in the Latin or other versions are often solved by going back to the original Hebrew. But I don't clearly grasp how far this term of 'general exactness' allows me to trust the authorized translation which we call the Vulgate."

"This far. The Vulgate is declared to be authentic in the sense that it can and must be held as a true and genuine source of revelation, so that not only no false doctrine of faith on erroneous rule of morals is legiti mately deducible from it, but it ex-presses faithfully all that pertains to the substance of the Divine Word. That is what is meant by general ex actness. But let us go one step fur-ther. What would you say if, be-

1910 the number sank below the two million line, although the population had increased nearly ten millions since 1898; in 1910 the number of children born was 93.824 fewer than two years before. In some of the larger cities this decline amounts to a catastrophe, e. g., in Berlin the deline since 1876 was from 46 in ten housand to 21.8 in 1909 ; in Barmer, from 47.7 to 23.4 : in Solingen, from 38.3 to 21.2; in Dresden from 41 to 25. The absolute retrogression is seen in such cases as Munich, which in 1901, with a population of half a million, there were 14,103 children born, but in 1909, with a population of 26570,000, only 10,535. hese are only sample facts.

Turning to the greater decreas among Protestants than among Cath-olics, the writer says :

" In Prussia from 1875 to 1900 the average number of children in a Catholic family was 5. in a Protest ant family 4. In 1871 the Protestant contingent in that kingdom was 64.9 per cent. of the entire population and the Catholic 33.3 per cent. In 1910 the ratio was 61.8 and 36.3 per cent. The percentage of Protestant children as compared with those born from Catholic parents has decreased from 54.4 : 38.6 in 1903 to 52.8 ; 40.4 in 1910. Still more elo-In quent are thefollowing facts : In 1901 the Protestant school children in Prussia numbered 3,491,373, in 1906 it was 3,706,962; in 1911 it was 3,8516,47 while the Catholic figures were 2,057 272, then 3,321,926, and then 2,597,914.

In ten years the three and a half million Protestant school children in Germany increased 360,000 while the It was contradicted and exposed him by letter. It then traveled to two million Catholic children had an increase of 510,000. The problem Ireland, and was circulated by Pres has also a serious religious side, and byterian Orangemen and was again exposed. It came back to this coun in addition a political phase when it is remembered that the Polish families report the largest gains. try and was attempted to be foisted again on Archbishop Ryan then re-Discussing some of the causes be cently installed as Archbishop of Philadelphia, and with the evident hind these figures, he continues :

intention of exciting prejudice The first and foremost cause is the industrializing of Germany and against him in his new see. the rush to the larger centers of pop. again thoroughly exposed in the Catholic Standard and Times, after nnually born in that country; in The Watchman a representative Mr. E. C. Killingsworth has opened Baptist journal of Boston, had per Funeral Directing establishment on mitted a correspondent to quote it as Richmond street opposite the CATHO-LIC RECORD office. He is a brother an utterance by Archbishop Ryan. LIC RECORD office. He is a brother of Mr. W. A. Killingsworth, Chief Like the correspondent of The Watch man, the Rev. Mr. Barnett became Train Despatcher on the C. P. R. Mr. the willing instrument for the re-Killingsworth comes from St. Thomas suscitation of a musty falsehood. Early in the second half of the and is highly recommended. He is a most exemplary Catholic and a Knight of Columbus, as well as a member of the C.M.B.A; a man of last century a newspaper was pub-lished in St. Louis called the "Shepherd of the Valley." Its editor was a Mr. Bakewell, a Catholic, then a the highest character in every regard. His equipment is new and up-to-date young man, who became a very dis and he has had experience with R. tinguished citizen of St. Louis and V. Stone and B. D. Humphrey, Torjudge of the Court of Appeals.

ferring to misrepresentations of the onto. Residence on the premises. Catholic religion by its enemies Judge Bakewell wrote in his paper as follows:

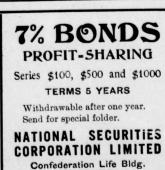

"If Catholics ever attain, which they surely will, though at a distant day, the immense numerical major-ity in the United States, religious liberty, as at present understood, will be at an end—so say our enemies." The sentence was mutilated and its meaning entirely changed by leaving out the words we have printed in italics. In this mutilated form it was published by anti-Catholic newspapers as an expression of Judge Bake well's belief. The misrepresentation was exposed, and for a time it passed out of notice. Soon, however, it was revived in an anti-Catholic pubout of lication, and it was attempted to fasten it in Archbishop Kenrick, of St. Louis. Again it was exposed Then again it was revived, and was again exposed about 1878 in the Catholic Standard, of Philadelphia. Then it traveled to Australia was attributed to Archbishop Ryan.

"I BECAME A CATHOLIC BECAUSE" "First: "Every rational and in-structed man ought to believe in God."

"One who believes in Second: God ought to believe in Christ and His revelation.'

"Third: "Whoeoer believes in Christ and Christianity ought to be-"Whoever believes in lieve in the Catholic Church, whose centre of unity and seat of sovereignty s the Roman See of Peter."-V. Rev. Augustine F. Hewit, C. S. P.

Thus the road to Truth is clear and short to minds without guile.

TORONTO

If you boast a lot about your dis tinguished forbears you cannot be