Country Talk.

Wingham.

Dr. Macdonald, M. P. for East Huron, met with a serious accident Saturday afternoon. While driving in the country about five miles from town one of the wheels of his carriage came off and the Dr. was thrown violently to the ground. He was found by Mr. Johnson, a farmer residing in the neighborhood, in an unconscious condition, with his leg broken. His injuries, though serious, are not dangerous.

Ethel.

Dr. McKelvey, of Ethel, had twelve acres of peas which yielded 300 bushels of grain.
Agnes Ross and Maggie Keys have opened a dressmaking establishment in the store formerly occupied by D. W. Milne.

Dr. Cale one day recently, assisted by Dr. Graham, of Brussels, removed a tumor from a man by the name of Watson, of Ethel, who camps out around Ethel during the summer, the patient is getting along as well as possible.

Newry.

The Newry cheese factory shipped 400 August cheese on Friday last.

Mr. Holmes has become quite settled in Mr. Gee's old stand, the customers may look for good attention to their wants as of old.

H. Y. Smith has been re-engaged in No. 5 for 1892 with a substantial raise in salary, and will continue to wield the birch in that academy.

RETURNED.—W. R. Humphrey has returned from his trip abroad and again finds himself in old Newry. He says he spent a good time among friends in the Old Country, but reports a very wet season, so much so that the grain is rotting in the field. The trip out was a fine one, but not so pleasant was the voyage home. He left Glasgow on Saturday, Sept. 26, on board the steamship Colina, but when out at sea about 500 miles the ship was compelled to put back into port on account of the stormy weather; she was laid up for repairs. W. R. thus lost 5 days, but again sailed on Oct. 3rd on board the Aramynthia this time, and had a pleasant voyage of eleven days, reaching home on Friday 1st, bringing with him a dozen of fine Irish black thorns. He looks the better for the outing.

AT REST.—Again we are called upon to chronicle the death of one of Elma's early settlers in the person of Mrs. Charles Coulter, who passed away to her appointed reward on Monday, Oct. 18, at the ripe age of 87 years. Mrs. Coulter (nee Miss Mary Smith) was born in the county of Sligo, Ireland, in 1804, and emigrated to Canada in 1822. In 1826 she married the late Charles Coulter and together they settled at Belamy's Mills, (now Clayton) county of Lanark. In 1854 Mr. Coulter came to Elma and took up land, and returned to Lanark the same year, returning to Elma with his wife and family in February, 1855, settling upon the farm which they have since occupied. Here they lived, sharing and alleviating the sufferings incident to early life in the forest remote from civilization and attendant comforts. As their home was situated on what was then the only road in the township, they entertained many of the early settlers and their families as they journeyed by to locate; in fact, provided food and shelter for all who were in need of it, and consequently they were highly esteemed by those who partook of their hospitality. Their success in life may be attributed to their intelligence, industry and enterprise. There were twelve children born to them, six of whom are still living. Their names are: Mrs. R. L. Alexander, Moosejaw, N. W. T.; Mrs. A. H. Wynn, Newry; Mrs. Samuel Love, Trowbridge; John Coulter, Los Angeles, Cal.; Young and James Coulter, Newry. The subject of this notice was, as is well known, a neighborly, kind-hearted, Christian woman, beloved by all who knew her. The funeral on Tuesday was one of the largest ever witnessed in Elma township, there being over 100 vehicles in the procession. The pall-bearers were: Moses Harvey, J. W. Boyd, Donald Gordon, John Graham, John Bell and Wm. Lochhead. The burial service was conducted by Rev. A. Henderson, M.A., and the interment made in the family plot in the Elma Centre cemetery. Thus one by one the old landmarks of Elma are passing away to the great beyond.

Henfryn.

On Sunday evening, Oct. 11, a cedar pole about 16 feet long and about 7 inches thick, was laid across the road near Henfryn corner. The first buggy that came along came near being ditched; the next that came along was one of Beatty's livery rigs from Brussels, when it came in contact with the pole it broke the axle. It is reported that the party who placed the obstruction will be called on to pay the damages as he is known. There will be little difficulty in proving the case.

Grey.

Geo. McDonald went to Muskoka last week where he will spend the winter.

The tax collectors are getting on their war paint and will commence the attack in a week or so.

Messrs. Coombs & McDonald are closing up a very busy and successful season as stone masons and bricklayers. During the year they built stone stabling under six barns in Turnberry, Morris, Wawanosh and Hullet townships and in addition erected two brick houses in Elma and Grey, doing the stone and brickwork and plastering. They have a cellar to build yet if the weather keeps favorable. The outlook for next season is good as they have the stonework of 4 bank barns, one being an unusually large one 75x83 feet with 9 foot walls, for Andrew Sloan, near Blyth. Messrs. Coombs & McDonald are honest workers and do a good job every time.

Listowel.

E. G. Harris, Inkerman street, is confined to his bed, having had a stroke of paralysis on Monday evening.

The ladies of Knox church scored another gratifying success in their entertainment on Thursday evening, Oct. 8. There was a large turnout at the rink, and as a consequence the proceeds reached the snug sum of $80.

Mrs. John Brislin, sr., had the misfortune to have a plum pit lodged in her wind pipe where it has caused her much irritation and severe fits of coughing. It has been found impossible to dislodge it so far, and fears are entertained for her life. She is 74 years of age. She has since died.

Miss Louisa Kesig, daughter of Ernest Kesig, Elma street west, died on Wednesday, Oct. 14, in her 21st year. Unfortunately medical assistance was not called in time, she having been ill for some days before a doctor was summoned. Her father was away from home and up to Thursday knew nothing of his daughter's illness or death. The deceased was thought much of by those who knew her.

PRESENTATION.—The many friends of N. G. McBain will be sorry to learn that he has resigned his position as head salesman in Carson & McKee's store, in which capacity he has proved himself a decided success. He has entered into partnership with Mr. Irwin, of Atwood, and intends carrying on a general store business in Brussels. The business training Mr. McBain has received and the ability he has shown while here predicts for him a successful future in the mercantile line. On Thursday evening, Oct. 15th, a number of the brethren of Listowel Lodge No. 160, I. O. O. F., met in their lodge room, with a few other friends, to say farewell to their esteemed brother, who for some time has been an active member of that organization. The chair was taken by the Rev. Dr. Campbell, who filled it in his usual courteous manner, and after making a few well pointed remarks an easy chair was presented to Mr. McBain with the following address:—

DEAR BRO. MCBAIN:—It has been with feelings of the deepest regret that we have learned that you are about to leave us. During the time you have been identified with our beloved Order you have proved yourself to be a good Oddfellow, and was always ready to perform the duties assigned to you. The interest you have manifested in the Order is a good evidence that yours is a motive prompted by one of the noblest principles of Oddfellowship, i. e. "Brotherly Love." Your genial disposition and genuine good heartedness, coupled with the character you have built up for yourself, have won for you many warm friends, and has bound together ties of friendship that cannot easily be broken. The parting of friends is always sad, and while we are deeply grieved at your leaving us, yet we cannot but feel comforted with the fact that you (having the principles of Oddfellowship at heart) will continue in the good work in which you have commenced. Our loss will be the gain of another lodge and another town. We cannot see you leave us without in some way expressing our sorrow at your departure and the kindly feeling that exists towards you. Accept this chair as a small token of esteem, and may you be long spared to rest in it. We wish you every success in your new field and trust that you will not relax any of your efforts in the direction of promoting the interests of our Order, and at last when you are called to leave your work here may you be ready to enter that grand lodge above. Signed in behalf of the members,

T. L. HAMILTON,
S. T. RUTHERFORD.

Mr. McBain made a suitable and feeling reply. Short addresses were then made by a number of those present, in which they expressed their deep regret at the departure of their brother, and joined in wishing him a prosperous future, after which Dr. Campbell closed the meeting with prayer.
