An aged woman made her way down King street yesterday promising to go to a meeting to listen to her, that she had been robbed of $14. She had made a purchase in town she said, and had been short-changed. She had only received $2 in change, and had nothing to show for her purchase. When last heard of she was still out the $14.

Tom Bateman, who owns a cow, is lamenting the loss of a chain. He had his cow tethered by the chain to a post in a pasture field when some one who needed the chain came along, and found what he was looking for. Now Mr. Bateman is looking for the other man. He hasn't very great hopes of ever finding him, however, which is shown by the fact that he has bought another chain.

Judge Morse Dead.

Halifax, N. S., July 12.-Hon. W. A. D. Morse, Judge of the County Court for Cumberland and Pictou counties, who died at Amherst yesterday morning in the 70th year, was appointed by the Mackenzie Government in 1876. He was much interested in researches into the early history of the Maritime Provinces, and possessed historic documents.

Assailant Arrested.

Galt, July 12.-John J. Groves, the plumber, who stabbed William West, in the New Royal Hotel here Tuesday night, was arrested at Paris yesterday morning. West has a bare chance to recover.

Groves admitted his guilt and handed over the bloody knife to Chief McFarlane of Paris.
