THE PEACE SOCIETY'S MESSAGE.

Black Flags Serve Ejection Notice on British Marines, Who Will Not Go—Great Railway Wreck in Texas—Gladstone in Perfect Accord With Rosebery.

Houston, Texas, June 20.—The northbound Missouri, Kansas & St.
Louis flyer which left here late last night was wrecked at Eureka. The conductor walked back to the city and reported that five coaches loaded with passengers were in the ditch.
He feared many were badly injured.
His porter was missing. No other particulars could be learned. A re-lie train with surgeons has been sent to the scene. It is supposed the wreck was caused by a washout due to heavy rains.

INDEMNITY DEMANDED.
Constantinople, June 20.—The Government has demanded from the Porte the payment of $2,000 as indemnity for an incursion into Bulgarian territory of a number of Bashi-Bazouks who were pursuing sheep. The Bashi-Bazouks, who were three Bulgarian frontier guards.

AT A STRANGE TIME.
London, June 20.—The International Arbitration and Peace Society has telegraphed to Mr. Gladstone, urging upon the press and the representatives of the Powers at Kiel the need of steps being taken toward disarmament and the conclusion of arbitration treaties.

GLADSTONE'S STATEMENT.
London, June 20.—The Westminster Gazette publishes a telegram from Mr.
Gladstone which says that the Government, in order to preserve independence, cancelled his pair with Villiers, without any request from him. Mr. Gladstone also says he entertains not the slightest feeling of dissatisfaction with the Government.

JUST HANGED HIM.
Morristown, N. J., June 20.—August Bergman, who murdered his brother Julius, on January 19, 1894, in a quarrel about money that had been left to them, was hanged here to-day.

THEY ARE NOT GOING.
London, June 20.—A despatch to the Times from Hong Kong says that the Black Flag general commanding the withdrawal of the 200 British marines landed at Anping, in the island of Formosa, and the British officer commanding the marines has refused to withdraw and is preparing to fight.

THE KIEL FETES.

The Cordiality Seems to be Clouded by Distinct and Jealousy.

Kiel, June 20.—The Emperor arrived here at 8 o'clock last evening and was met by Prince Henry of Prussia, her brother-in-law. Salutes in her honor were fired in the harbor.
Admiral Manigault, commanding the French squadron, has visited several prominent persons ashore.

FRENCHMEN REMEMBER.
Paris, June 20.—More of the protestant article, professing that the French warships at Kiel have placed a wreath on the pedestal of the Strasburg monument in the Place de La Concorde.

New York, June 20.—A despatch to the Herald from Hamburg says: The demonstration of the French Admiral, Manigault, and his officers toward Prince Henry of Prussia, on Tuesday, was cordial and left the best impression upon the Kaiser's brother and Admiral Manigault, commanding the French squadron. It is understood that the joint entry of the French and Russian squadrons into Kiel harbor was arranged by telegram.

IS THIS LIKELY?
It is reported that the authorities of Kiel arsenal intend to dismiss a number of Socialist workmen who were in the harbor, while the French fleet, though on private vessels.

The Weer Zeitung publishes an alarmist article, professing that the vessels passing through the canal will go aground, that the banks will give way, and that many other accidents will occur.

AMID BOOMING GUNS.
Brunsbittel, June 20.—At 3 o'clock this morning the despatch boat Grille entered the locks at Brunsbittel, followed by the Hohenzollern. The latter passed into the canal a salute was fired by the artillery stationed at a little distance from the entrance to the locks, while the soldiers, composed of cavalry, infantry and pioneers, lining both banks, presented arms.
The German military band played the German National Anthem.

The Grille started first as a scout.
Then came the Hohenzollern, with the Emperor; the Kaiser Adler, with the German kings and grand dukes; the North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II., with the other German princes; the North German Lloyd steamer Trave and the Hamburg-American line steamers Columbia and Augusta Victoria, with officers and members of the Reichstag. Next came the foreign yachts, including the Osborne, the British Admiralty yacht Entreprenant, the Italian Savoya, the French despatch boat Surcouf, the Russian (Crosinshel), the Martheleand, the Spanish Alfonso XII., and the Romanian Mirecea.

The head of the procession is expected to arrive at Holtenau about 6 o'clock this evening.

WELCOME TO THE KAISER.

Kiel, June 20.—The Emperor, on board the Hohenzollern, came in sight of the Holtenau Locks at 12:30 p. m. The immense crowd of people on the Holtenau Festplatz set up a mighty cheer as the vessel was sighted.
Five minutes later she had steamed up to the Locks, which she entered at 12:35. The Emperor stood high upon the bridge, behind the mainmast, attired in full uniform of an Admiral of the German navy surrounding the well known picture, with "Heil Dir, Riegerkranz," which the Kaiser acknowledged by a salute.
It was a grand spectacle. On each side of the lock was drawn up a company of the First Foot Guards.
Potsdam, with a band, and a company of the Kaiser's Flanburg regiment, were lined on the north shore in front of the harbor office, with the marine band. The admirals and generals stood upon the centre rampart which divides the sections of the lock.
The immense crowds kept up continuous cheering, as the Hohenzollern passed through and went to her anchorage, followed by the Kaiser's ship.

HONORED HIS GRANDMOTHER.
Kiel, June 20.—This being the fifty-first anniversary of the accession of Queen Victoria to the throne of Great Britain, by special command of Emperor William a royal salute was fired at noon from all the German warships, which at the same time hoisted the British flag to the strains of the British National Anthem.

clerical Conservatives.

PROBABLY A MURDER.

A Chatham Man Horribly Carved by an Ex-Convict To-day.

Chatham, Ont., June 20.—What threatens to be a fatal cutting affair occurred at 3 o'clock this morning at the Station Hotel, this city.
The proprietor, Joe Jewell, ordered two men, George McGregor, a barber, and Charles Wright, to leave his hotel, when McGregor attacked him with a razor, cutting him across the forehead in a horrible manner. Mc-Gregor was at first asked to stop, but searched the bloody razor and a handed revolver were found in his pockets.
McGregor is an ex-convict, who was paroled after serving part of his sentence.

Myntott is also in the lockup.

YACHTING.

The R. Y. C. C. cruising handicap on Saturday next promises to be an interesting race. It will be for 27, 32 and 45-footers. Numerous entries have been received and several yachts will be up from Toronto for the event.

BASEBALL.

Hamilton and Galt teams play a championship baseball match at Dun-durn Park on Saturday. It will be a large crowd. The enployees of Copp, Clark & Co., Toronto, will be at the park the same day.

The Anchor line beat the young Pacifica a game of baseball on St. Matthew's field last evening.
Score, 19 to 13.

Lord Derby's Dingle Bay 3rd.

ON THE T. H. & E.

Another start was made on the Hunter Street tunnel to-day, this time at the western end of the proposed cutting. The work was stopped, however, after the men had worked an hour. It is not likely that much will be done until next week.
President Beckley, of the T. H. & E., was in the city to-day.

It is difficult to believe that a true gentleman will ever become a gamester, a libertine or a scoundrel.

BISHOP GRAVEL'S LETTER.

McCarthy on the Privy Council and Outside Influence.

THE ST. LOUIS CASE ON.

(By our Own Reporter.)

Ottawa, June 20.—Bishop McCarthy was seen by your correspondent this morning at his quarters at the Victoria Chambers, and asked what he thought of the letter from Bishop Gravel, published in the Montreal press yesterday.

"I have read the circular," he said.
"Of course, Gravel, Bishop of Nicolet, published in Montreal yesterday, and the statements containing that the judgment pronounced by starting character. It is alleged that the Prefect of the Propaganda of Rome, through the instrumentality of Cardinal Vaughan, has endeavored to influence the Privy Council, and it is more than insinuated that it was through Cardinal Vaughan's good offices that the judgment from their Judicial Committee on the appeal from the Supreme Court was favorable to the claims of the Catholics. It is impossible to suppose that the Lords who sit upon the case knowingly allowed their minds to be influenced by the insidious instigations of Cardinal Vaughan, based as they appear to have been, upon a tie-sue of misrepresentations, but at the same time it is not to be denied that the Judicial Committee is in some respects a political body, and that the Lord Chancellor, who presided on the occasion, is a member of the Rosebery Government, and one can hardly fail to notice in the remarks which the Lord Chancellor made throughout the argument, and some observations which occurred in the judgment that he was influenced by considerations which did not appear as part of the case which was submitted to the Supreme Court, and that the threat that the Catholics of Manitoba—meaning, I presume, the French-Catholics—would be alienated from their allegiance to Great Britain if the judgment was against them, may have been more or less influential in his judgment, or rather not so much his decision upon the dry question of law as the observations which are to be found in the reasons given in the judgment, which he made and which judgment was accepted and adopted by the majority of all the members of the Judicial Committee. The bishop does not hesitate to impugn the wisdom of the Privy Council, asserting that the reasoning of that body is not sound, and that it is not possible to believe that men of such intellectual strength as the noble lords could have so acted."

It is perhaps not to be wondered at that Mr. Gravel's statements of fact, written as they were without an opportunity of consulting documents, are somewhat inaccurate. The most important misstatement is contained in the allegation that the Manitoba rebels before they laid down their arms, had agreed to the establishment of Separate Schools, as in Quebec and Ontario, and that the Governor-General and the Government of Canada had agreed to this, and promised that a clause should be placed in the constitution. It is now absolutely clear that no such agreement was ever made by the representatives of the people who framed the Provisional Assembly at the time of the negotiations between the Red River settlers and the Government, and consequently it could not have been assented to by the Government. On the contrary it is apparently clear that the rights in which the demand that Separate Schools be established appears is a fictitious document got up by the separatists, and that it is now seeking by underhand and illegitimate means to have the people of Manitoba deprived of their just rights."

The civil action which the Crown has taken against E. St. Louis opened in the Exchequer Court here today. The action is to recover $143, 887, for money overpaid in connection with the Curran bridge construction.
St. Louis has a contra account for $25,000 against the Crown. The case went against him in the Exchequer Court, but he has appealed it to the supreme court.

It will take a number of years to examine. They showed that while they drew a very limited amount of money from the Government, they paid for their work. Messrs. Georion, Q. C., and Edward appeared for St. Louis, and Messrs. O'Leary, Q. C., and O'Connor and Hogg for the Crown.
