WANTS JEFFRIES TO REFEREE.

New York, June 11.—Stanley Ketchell would like to have Jim Jeffries as referee for his coming fight with Jack Johnson for the world's championship next October at Colma, California. The Michigan midweight reached here early today from Philadelphia, with his manager, Willis Britz. Speaking of the statement of Jeffries that he would take on Ketchell for the championship should he defeat Johnson, Britz said: "I don't believe Jeffries would want to fight Ketchell. Jeffries' sole idea in returning to the ring was to defend the title from Johnson, who claims it. I should like nothing better than to have Jeffries referee the Ketchell-Johnson fight, and will accept him in a hurry if Johnson makes no objections."

CRIMINAL CASES LAID OVER.

Wm. Edmonston and Albert New, charged with assault and robbery, and Edward Hughes, accused of aggravated assault, will not be tried at the present time, their cases having been laid over until the fall assizes.

MRS. SAJICKE NOT GUILTY.

At the General Sessions of the Peace and County Court yesterday afternoon Mrs. Helena Sajicke was tried on a charge of perjury.

It is alleged that on May 10 last she wilfully swore to what she knew was false before Magistrate Jellis in the trial of Abraham Judelson, charged with theft. On that occasion she denied having signed her name to a lease of some goods she had obtained from Judelson on the installment plan with the alleged intention of freeing herself to pay that debt and deceiving the Magistrate in the administration of justice.

Wm. E. McHaffie, Police Court Clerk, was first called, and swore that he was present at the preliminary hearing of Judelson. The prisoner, Mrs. Sajicke, had been sworn by the sergeant in charge in the regular way in the presence of the Police Magistrate. The prisoner had denied on that occasion having signed the lease produced at that trial.

Magistrate Jellis also said the prisoner was sworn in the usual way in his presence. She swore she did not sign the paper produced, but did sign some paper. From the nature of her evidence he thought the woman was consciously telling what was not true.

Interpreter Budimir Protich testified that he knew the prisoner, and spoke the same language. He had talked frequently with her, and knew that she understood him, at the Police Court, on the occasion of Judelson's trial, at which he had performed his duty as interpreter.

Charles Aitchison gave evidence that he was in the employ of Mr. Carson. Neville, he said, was at the pool room during the whole evening.

Mr. Washington asked if Neville did not sometimes go out for an hour or so in the evening. Witness replied that the prisoner was supposed to be on duty at the pool tables all the time. He denied having told the constables that prisoner went out for an hour sometimes. He said the prisoner might have gone out by a back door without his knowing it.

T. H. Bennett was called, and said no gas light could reach the spot where prisoner was said to have been because of the picket fence. He did not think a man could be identified in that yard at 8:30 come out of one door and go into another at Carson's pool room.

W. L. Venator testified that on the night of the shooting he took Constable Smith into his house and the constable said, "That man meant business," and added, "I hope this doesn't get to my wife." He said he could not recognize a man that night where the prisoner was.

It was a cloudy night, but had there been a bright moonlight shining on the

ASKED HER AGE,

But Court Told Mrs. Gould She Need Not Answer.

Admitted She Had Travelled With Cody's Wild West Show.

New York, June 11.—Mrs. Catherine Clemmons Gould continued her testimony to-day in her suit for a separation from her husband, Howard Gould, and answered the personal and searching questions of Delancey Nicholl, the defendant's lawyer, before a crowded court room of curious people.

Mr. Gould's counsel questioned her about the Blue Gap Farm near Lynchburg, and the witness said she paid $38,000 for it. Mrs. Gould said the farm was controlled by a corporation, in which she had put the money.

After Mrs. Gould had told what she had taken from Castle Gould to Lynchburg farm, Mr. Nicholl asked the witness her age, but the court excused her from answering or from telling where she was born. Before her marriage, Mrs. Gould said, she was known as Viola Catherine Thorne Clemmons and as Viola Day, the latter being the name of her stepfather.

Mr. Nicholl asked the witness if she had ever travelled with a wild west show. Mrs. Gould replied that she had travelled once with Miss Ada Cody, and had accompanied the show to Naples, Rome and other European cities. She had seen good deal of Colonel Cody, as he was the manager, and she had frequently to consult him, the witness said.
