Moncton Alderman Killed
Ex-Alderman Juddus N. Boudreau, a well known merchant of Moncton, was killed about 11:15 o'clock Wednesday evening, about one mile west of Dorchester, when his five-passenger Overland car, which he was driving at the time, skidded and went into the ditch, fracturing his skull and inflicting other injuries, causing his death in a few moments, the unfortunate man never regaining consciousness.

THE FIRST AND LAST OF THE FATHERS
(By Michael Whelan)
"For fiery, fierce and fickle is the south,
But loving, dark and tender is the north."
McGee's Sp. on Confed.

Hon. T. D. McGee, d. 1818.
Brave Erin's brilliant and most gifted son,
Whose sad and tragic fate all hearts deplore,
Struck down in death just at the very door
Of Union's glorious temple, but begun,
And as the fearful fight was fairly won!
All hearts by deepest grief were stricken sore,
Their tears in torrents on his tomb they pour.
This well-beloved and grandly gifted one,
Alas! the noblest cause has foolish friends
More fell, fiercer than the fiercest foe,
Who seek in strife their silly, selfish ends.
Binding fair Freedom with a chain of woe.
Brave Lincoln died for broader, better laws,
McGee was murdered for his country's cause.

Sir Charles Tupper, d. 1915
(By Michael Whelan)
Sir Charles Tupper, last of that great band,
The famous thirty-three, the fathers all
Who met in old Quebec's historic hall
To formulate one Law for this great land,
To lay the firm foundation that should stand
The test of time and every strain and call
For fuller freedom from the things that thrall,
The false old forms that fetter brain and hand.
To clear the way for every race and creed
To force ahead and man the forest free,
To work for God and man in every deed
In this broad land, from sounding sea to sea.
This grand old man forever from us passed
While all the world with war is overcast.

Had His Grave Ready For Burial

(Sackville Post)
Lance-Corporal Stewart, a brother of Mrs. H. H. Woodworth of this town, arrived in St. John a few days ago, and is now in the Parks Soldiers' Home in that city. Mr. Stewart was very badly wounded some months ago in France or Belgium, and while he has greatly improved, is still unfit for service. A bullet went through his head, rendering him speechless, and unable to move. For several hours he lay on the battlefield, and when found by his companions, they agreed he was dead and had actually started digging his grave when one of them noticed a slight movement on the part of the wounded man, and they concluded not to bury him but took him to the nearest hospital. For weeks Stewart lay unconscious but he gradually recovered, and is now almost himself again.

Reported Wounded
Ross A. Murphy, of Bass River, Kent county, and Henry I. Beria, of Bathurst, are reported wounded, in the 26th battalion.

Had Narrow Shave
Last Wednesday when the trouble was in full swing at the station, a bottle was thrown at Officer Culligan when he was stepping off the car. The missile, however, struck the car first and just glanced from his cap without injuring him.—Graphic.

Tenders for Little Printing Jobs
A country editor sarcastically remarks that he wants to buy a sack of flour, a pair of shoes and a straw hat, and he is ready to receive the lowest bids for the same. He states that some of his town merchants treat him this way when they want $2 worth of printing done.—Ex.

Meaning of Cemetery
It is not correct to say that "cemetery" means the "city of the dead." The word is from the Greek "kolmetion," meaning sleeping place not the place of the dead. There is nothing in the etymology of the word to warrant us in thinking that it was originally intended to convey the idea of any more than there is in the old Hebrew term for cemetery, "beth thaim," the house of the living.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STANDS FALLING
Save your Hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!
