A Very Wise Railway Man.

A well-informed railway man of Detroit, alluding to the reported transfer of the C. V. R. to the G. W. R., said he couldn't imagine what use the Great Western or Grand Trunk roads would have for the Credit Valley line except to rip up the rails and sell them for old iron. He was not inclined to believe the report.

NEWS ABOUT HOME.

"A child's among ye, takin' notes,
An' faith he'll 'prent it."

TOWN TOPICS.

For the largest assortment of fancy and ornamental Christmas and New Year's cakes, and holiday confectionery, the choicest varieties, go to the Kingston street bakery. Mrs. J. L. Sturdy.

If you want a first class photo, an album or a cabinet frame of the latest design, E. L. Johnson's is the place to get it. Geo. B. Robson, late with Hunter & Co., Toronto, is the manager.

If you want a first class cooking stove, call and see G. N. Davis' variety. Also American and Canadian oil for family use. Having an experienced workman, any house work will be done in the most satisfactory manner.

Sanders, the variety store man, has opened a new show room upstairs, for the holiday display, and invites all who wish to purchase fine goods at low prices, to inspect the stock. Attention should be given to show goods. Ladies should call early. See advt.

Xmas presents.—You can select goods of all kinds at all prices, in all patterns, for all ages, tastes and positions, from the very large, varied and splendid stock of goods at Butler's. The stock was bought for cash, imported direct, and will be sold out at people's own prices. See Butler's before you buy presents.

December dust this year.
Whooping cough is prevalent in town.

Miss Kathleen Lizars, of Stratford, is visiting friends in town.

By a runaway on Monday, Belcher's broad wagon lost a wheel.

Mr. Butler has secured the services of Miss Alice Ferguson as clerk in his bookstore.

Mr. W. J. C. Naftel intends to open out a drug store in the Albion Block next month.

A town butcher was fined by the Mayor on Thursday for violating the market-by-law in buying his beef.

Miss Platt left on the early train yesterday morning to attend the Mason's annual ball at Palmerston.

Mr. James Whitley has returned from the Toronto School of Medicine, to spend his vacation at home.

The Mechanics Institute drawing class will open on Friday evening in the rooms. Mr. Young is the teacher.

Mr. M. Nicholson, the well-known dentist, who is a lover of good horses, has purchased a two year old Hambletonian stallion from Mr. W. J. Harris, of Colborne.

In consequence of the absence of Rev. Mr. Francis, who is attending anniversary services in Missouri, there will be no service in the M. E. church in the morning of Sabbath 18th inst. Rev. Dr. Ure will occupy the pulpit in the evening.

George McDonald, late of Goderich, was fined $50 in the District Court, Detroit, on Friday, for smuggling a pair of pants across from Windsor. He wore them under his old pair, which caused his legs to give him away.—[London Free Press.

It is now understood that in consequence of Christmas Day and a proclamation for the observance of the day, the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, declaring the succeeding Mondays to be public holidays.

The Clinton New Era says:—Messrs. F. W. Johnston, S. Platt, W. Campbell, and R. McLean, all members of the Goderich Conservative Association, and R. Jackson, of Egmondville were in town yesterday, on their way to attend a convention at Wingham.

Big Threshing.—A Dakota correspondent writes:—On the farm of Mr. Geo. Bodle, Castleton, on the 22d of September, a steam thrasher belonging to A. L. Bodle, threshed 1,378 bushels of wheat in 10 hours. Can any of your Huron threshers beat that?

Knox Church S. S. quarterly review will be held in the main body of the church on Sunday afternoon. The reviewers will use large and handsomely colored lithographs, and the exercises will be interesting to young and old. Parents and friends of the school are particularly invited.

Mr. Peter Robertson, G. T. R. brakeman, had a narrow escape from a fatal result, on Friday last at Seaforth. He was coupling two C. S. R. cars (which have longer platforms than the G. T. R.) and his left shoulder was caught, tearing off about six inches of skin, and fracturing the collar bone. He is able to be around again.

The officers of the High School Literary Society elected last Friday evening are as follows: President, Mr. J. Elliott; 1st vice president, Mr. E. McDonald; 2nd vice president, Miss Start; secretary, Mr. A. P. Sheppard; sec. of con., Miss Williams; treasurer, Mr. A. D. Dickson; editor, Miss M. Starr; librarian, Mr. W. Trainer; committee, Misses M. Cameron, K. Macara and M. Seagmiller.

The fire in the Vienna theatre seems to have been much more disastrous to human life than was at first thought. The dead recovered from the ruins number five hundred and seventy-six, while those reported missing make the total of fire destroyed nine hundred and seventeen. The means of extinguishing fires do not appear to have been sufficient, while the passages were nothing more or less than death traps. Yesterday the recognized dead were buried, and to-day the last offices will be performed for the dead who are buried beyond recognition. The lesson taught by this fire should not be thrown away. There is at least one public hall in Goderich, the exit from which is so defective that in the event of a fire beneath it, if there was a large audience upstairs they would have to go to death.

The fire in the Vienna theatre seems to have been much more disastrous to human life than was at first thought. The dead recovered from the ruins number five hundred and seventy-six, while those reported missing make the total of fire destroyed nine hundred and seventeen. The means of extinguishing fires do not appear to have been sufficient, while the passages were nothing more or less than death traps. Yesterday the recognized dead were buried, and to-day the last offices will be performed for the dead who are buried beyond recognition. The lesson taught by this fire should not be thrown away. There is at least one public hall in Goderich, the exit from which is so defective that in the event of a fire beneath it, if there was a large audience upstairs they would have to go to death.
