Cus Garvey Reviews African Nobility

Black Cross of the uniformed of followers, riding araded the streets thousands

ay

nbers

000000

ROMPT Ltd.,

Trade,

Scotch

es and

: 2121.

Garvey's unfortunate the Black Star Line, to members of the Improvement Associane to had advice and unfair He asserted the president men of the asnded their chief, rerepresentative of The walked toward the stand vey in the third carriage was stopped by several who said they had been said, patronizingly: Garvey as private detectives der to show white people that rsal Negro Improvement Assoon the map, the parade, afving Liberty Hall, No. 120, 138th street, marched down oth avenue as far as 110th street as then that banners reading men rule America, black men rule Africa," "We want a black ion," and "God and the Negro umph," were raised. f any, of the leading negroes W York accepted invitations extake part in the parade. jority respectfully declined. the parade as large as on the ceding years?"

was the question of the hour assert there were more. obvious. If the parade was tually come. it would prove that Marcus popularity is on the wane; ere as large or larger the dewould be that the "Provis-'esident of Africa" and preseneral of the Universal Negro ment Association continue a potent influence. in impartial observer the pard not suffer by comparisons that of 1921. There were about ersons in line.

Revulsion of Feeling.

an in Philadelphia went into artment store to buy some article that his wife had comd him to get as he This is the way he re his experience: as a hot day and I was in get home and get my head . So I puffed up to the count ing to get through land out tall blonde who would have full two quarts of champagne sloshing, was leaning fearily the counter cleaning her lails. She heard me puffing owing, I'm sure, because any the store could jut she etill lew nails to clean and sho

Another of Our Famous Special Week

D) R 三 5 5 三 5

They come in Silks, Crepe-de-Chene, Serges and Satins at 7.90. These dresses are made in highly fashionable models of superior quality. The collection features the newest in styling. Unparalleled bargains ever offered. This sale made possible by a sensational purchase of our buyer who is away in the market now, of a leading Dress Departemental Store in New York. is is an ideal opportunity to secure two or three for the price you would ordinarily pay for one. Buy as many as you can.

We thought we had reached the limit in value giving and attractive styling in the last big lot we placed on sale, and the way the big pile melted away we know you thought the same way. But this gorgeous new shipment on sale now are prettier by far-there is no question about that.

Suits, Coats, Wraps, Waists, Skirts are Drastically Reduced.

er until finally I said:crave a minute of your time."

ed, and she got it. Then it went nual income of $2,133. away to the 'steenth story to be wranped, and the dollar bill I gave her went to New York to be changed After waiting some hours, I got what was coming to me and paddled out as mad as I ever was in my life."

What is a Living Wage?

Aside from the fundamental impossibility of arriving at what a living wage is, there has arisen in this connection a disposition on the part of the spokesmen of labor entirely to ignore the question as to how much an industry can pay. A number of these spokesmen have in fact stated quite emphatically that they have has divided Harlem into rival no interest in that phase of the mat-Those of posed to the Garvey ter. It is, nevertheless, a very pracdeclare there were fewer tical consideration for those who in the march, while "Gar- | must find the money to pay the wages and for the public, out of whose pocrue significance of the ques- kets the costs of all industry even-

In the recent cases before the La-

BRINGS HAPPY EASE.

to Get Sure Relief. On Sale Everywhere. A GOOD THING. RUB IT IN

Negro Chief

MAKES DUKES AND KNIGHTS OF HIS SUPPORTERS.

New York, Aug. 11 .- Marcus Garvey, resplendent negro chief of the 'back to Africa" movement, which is heing considered here in a conbor Board the contention was made vention of negroes from all parts of der of Ethiopia.

warm- that the cost-of-living budgets of the world, held court last night. It workers showed that it was necessary was a gorgeous affair. Extremely "When you get quite through mani- that each one of them should have formal invitations to the function curing youself, Duchess, I would annual earnings of $2,636. Later this were issued, or rather the particifigure was changed to $2,133, or at pants were not "invited"—they were "That was so freezing, that it al- least the higher budget was laid aside | "summoned" to attend. Persons not most cooled me off. It didn't phase, and the claims of railroad labor ad- in gaudy uniform or in strict evenher. She finished her nails and then vocates were concentrated upon the ing dres were literally thrown out of demand that rates to pay should be Liberty Hall in the heart of the Har-"I told her impolitely what I wish- established that would provide an an- lem negro colony, where Garvey permitted his "subects" to be presented to him. A puzzling feature of the court reception was this: Garvey professes to be desirous of setting up a republic in Africa, and yet he spent the evening in conferring "knighthoods" and "dukedoms" upon members of the Universal Negro Improvement Association for "faithful and distinguished services." It is known how he reconciles the idea of a repuublic with monarchistic titles. "His Supreme Highness," Gabe under the direction of Garvey. Here are some samples of the titles conhonored: His grace the duke of Uganda, Sir John E. Bruce, New York, knight commander of the order of the Nile; his grace the duke of the Niger, the right reverend William H. Heard, Philadelphia; Sir Leroy N. Bundy, Cleveland, knight commander distinguished service or-

Just Folks

OLD FASHIONED REMEDIES. Taking medicine to-day isn't what is used to be. Castor oil is castor oil, but they've banished senna tea, And they've sugar coated now all the bitter things we've took, Mother used a brew for us from the family doctor book. Now I tell that boy of mine when h starts to make a fuss, He is lucky not to be taking what they

Seems the kitchen stove back then always had a back or two Brewing up a remedy for the ailments which we knew. something mother said we'd need surely in a little while, tea for stomach ills and its brother, camomile; Johnson, conducted the ceremonies But I vow the worst of all remedies they gave to me Was that gummy, sticky stuff known and served as flaxseed tea.

> Boy, put down that little pill, take your powders and be glad You're not getting what they gave Mother's hand was gentle, but rough When she sat beside my bed rubbing Getting well is easy now, take you You are lucky that it's not senna tea

Troop Train Crushes Into Motor.

TWO KILLED, ONE SERIOUSLY IN-JURED-TRAGEDY AT LEITCHE'S may die. CREEK.

(North Sydney Herald, Aug. 19th.) Jacob Anthony, of Sydney Mines and John Andrea, of North Sydney were instantly killed and Harold McSween was, it is believed, fatally hurt at Leitches Creek about 3 o'clock to-day by a troop train, which hit the > Mentholatum vonderful Relief for Sunla could.

The two men who were killed is torn and the head of the other bulance which had been summoned. smashed open. The truck is a com-vel crossing at Leitches Creek near from North Sydney. bodies of the dead and injured men street. could be picked up. The train was brought to a standstill as soon as possible and the train crew and some of the officers and men of the military force gave what assistance the

The men had stopped at Dunlop's store and had just started the truck when the train came and it is thought that the noise of the engine in low gear and the pop bottles rattling prevented their hearing the approaching express. The men were thrown out about a hundred feet. The truck Harold McSween was brought to was driven against the concrete of Hamilton Hospital and is believed to the culvert and a large piece was be in so critical a condition that he broken off and thrown down on the track. When Dr. Dan MacDonald arrived were cut almost beyong recognition on the scene he expressed the opinand their bodies are in a terrible ion that Anthony and Andrea were state. The train bearing the troops instantly killed. He dressed the was running at a fast rate and struck | wounds received by McSween and the truck fair on. One man's face dispatched him to Sydney in the am-

The motor truck belonged to the plete wreck. The body and the con- Atlantic bottling works at Sydney tents were smashed to splinters and Mines, which had only been in operathe undergear broken in thousands tion for a few weeks. The damage of pieces. The force of the blow was to it was so complete that even the so great as to crack the heavy engine number plates could not be found and the men were not identified until after The accident took place at the le- the arrival of persons summoned and in sight of Dunlop's store, from Mrs. Anthony was in North Sydney which medical assistance was tele- at the time of the accident and gained phoned for a few minutes after the her knowledge of the accident by accident occurred and before the overhearing a remark passed on the

Eat MRS. STEWART'S Home Made Bread.-apr4,6mo

IT'SECERTAINLY

PUNNING SMOOTH

CODAY!

-By Bud Fisher

IT RUNS ON ITS REPUTATION. MUTT AND JEFF THERE! I'VE REMOVED IT'S STRANGE HOW A THANKS WERY MUCH, THE MOTOR! THE RUNT WOMAN WILL FALL FOR MISS SCHULTZ! T'LL WILL TAKE NO RIDE ! A GUY EVEN WHEN HE BE OVER IN MY CAR WITH THAT SWELL DWNS A SARDINE CAN JUST AS SOON AS THIS IS DAME TODAY: LIKE THIS! I SHAVE! TATA! GONNA BE PICH