

4 O'clock
EDITION.

VOL. XXIX., NO. 138.

Cholera in Cashmere.

Nearly a Thousand Victims
Die in Four Days.

Storms and Floods Do Great Damage
In Donegal.

Farnell's Brother Declines to Contest
Limerick—Death of Rear Admiral
Mayne, M. P.—The Royal
Golden Wedding.

John Is Not in It.

LONDON, May 29.—John Parnell, brother of the late Charles S. Parnell, has declined to contest Limerick for Parliament.

The Noted Fester Goes Crazy.

LONDON, May 29.—Sueci, the fasting man, has become insane. He has been committed to an asylum.

Death of an M. P.

LONDON, May 28.—Rear Admiral Richard Charles Mayne, C. B., member of Parliament for Pembroke and Haverford West, is dead. He was born in 1835, and was a Conservative.

Ravages of Cholera in Cashmere.

CALCUTTA, May 29.—The cholera epidemic at Serinagar, in the Vale of Cashmere, continues its deadly course. In the last four days, out of 1,723 persons attacked, 990 have died.

Storms and Floods in the Old Land.

DUBLIN, May 29.—Storms and floods are doing immense damage to crops in county Donegal.

During a gale along the Anglesey coast a schooner was driven ashore near Beaumaris, Wales. All the crew except one man were saved.

On 'Change.

LONDON, May 29.—Discount was not demanded during the past week. The quotations were 3 for three months and 4 for short. The Bank of England's position continues to improve. The ease of the money market is increasing. Gold flows from abroad, while export inquiry is almost entirely dormant. The silver market is months to come. The silver market is featureless, the bulk of business being export to the East. On the Stock Exchange business was slightly more active towards the close of the week.

Military Outrages in Germany.

BERLIN, May 29.—Some military outrages upon civilians are reported from Saxony. An infantry officer of the guard there, who was probably excited by drink, interfered in a dispute which had arisen among a party of civilians, and drawing his sword, slashed right and left wounding several persons. The crowd was witnessed the affair became very riotous, and the interference of the police alone prevented them from lynching the officer on the spot. The Emperor has issued a private order to commanders, instructing them to exercise a stricter supervision over their officers, and to severely punish all offenses against civilians.

A Gala Day in Copenhagen.

COPENHAGEN, May 29.—King Christian and Queen Louise, accompanied by their imperial and royal guests, attended the festivities at the university yesterday in honor of their golden wedding. The Prince and Princess of Wales, who are in mourning for their son, have taken part in the fetes attendant upon the celebration of the golden wedding of King Christian and Queen Louise. All the diplomats in Copenhagen attended the celebration. Over 100,000 citizens and Provincials were present. There were 117 different associations represented. In the processions the students' section of the procession carried a banner every individual carried a branch of a beech tree, giving that part of the procession the appearance of a moving forest. The streets were decorated with the most beautiful decorations. The march past occupied three hours, and was viewed by the whole royal party.

An Agricultural Pest.

LONDON, May 30.—Diamond-back moths have been so disastrous to the crops in 1891, have reappeared in Yorkshire and Northumberland.

The Rothschilds Aid Brazil.

ROTHSCHILD, May 30.—It is rumored that the Rothschilds have undertaken to lend the Brazilian Government £2,000,000 sterling to provide in advance for the payment of its coupons and help to restore the normal standard of exchange.

Reward Offered for O'Brien.

LONDON, May 30.—Robert T. Lincoln, the United States Minister here, has issued a notice offering a reward for the arrest of Thomas O'Brien, the American "lunatic" star, who recently escaped from the French authorities at Havre after his capture by Oscar E. Williams, the American consul at that place.

The Silver Standard Question.

CALCUTTA, May 30.—The Simla Currency Association has issued a circular which says the silver standard has cost India £8,000,000 rupees, which might as well have been thrown into the sea. The circular adds that the hope of getting England to adopt bi-metallicism, and that the people must help themselves.

A Munificent Bequest.

LONDON, May 30.—The Assembly of the Free Kirk of Scotland at Edinburgh has been surprised and greatly cheered by the announcement that the deceased New York millionaire, G. B. Mackenzie, had bequeathed $100,000 as a sustenance fund for the church. Mr. Mackenzie died before his will was attested, but his children declared that they would execute their father's intention as expressed in the document.

Fatal Railway Wreck.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 30.—The Red express
from St. Louis to Chicago on the Atchafalaya, Tepeka and Santa Fe railroad was wrecked about a half of south Lemont, in Chicago county town about 30 miles from Chicago last night. The engineer, W. A. Lloyd was instantly killed. Ninety passengers were seriously and five slightly injured. Mrs.
Mare Bissell was seriously injured and probably die.

4 O'clock
EDITION.

VOL. XXIX., NO. 138.

Cholera in Cashmere.

Nearly a Thousand Victims
Die in Four Days.

Storms and Floods Do Great Damage
In Donegal.

Farnell's Brother Declines to Contest
Limerick—Death of Rear Admiral
Mayne, M. P.—The Royal
Golden Wedding.

John Is Not in It.

LONDON, May 29.—John Parnell, brother
of the late Charles S. Parnell, has declined
to contest Limerick for Parliament.

The Noted Fester Goes Crazy.

LONDON, May 29.—Sueci, the fasting
man, has become insane. He has been committed to an asylum.

Death of an M. P.

LONDON, May 28.—Rear Admiral Richard
Charles Mayne, C. B., member of Parliament for Pembroke and Haverford West,
is dead. He was born in 1835, and was a Conservative.

Ravages of Cholera in Cashmere.

CALCUTTA, May 29.—The cholera
epidemic at Serinagar, in the Vale of Cashmere, continues its deadly course. In the last four days, out of 1,723 persons attacked, 990 have died.

Storms and Floods in the Old Land.

DUBLIN, May 29.—Storms and floods are doing immense damage to crops in county Donegal.

During a gale along the Anglesey coast a schooner was driven ashore near Beaumaris, Wales. All the crew except one man were saved.

On 'Change.

LONDON, May 29.—Discount was not
demanded during the past week. The quotations were 3 for three months and 4
for short. The Bank of England's position
continues to improve. The ease of the money market is increasing. Gold flows from abroad, while export inquiry is almost entirely dormant. The silver market is months to come. The silver market is featureless, the bulk of business being
export to the East. On the Stock Exchange
business was slightly more active towards
the close of the week.

Military Outrages in Germany.

BERLIN, May 29.—Some military outrages upon civilians are reported from Saxony. An infantry officer of the guard there, who was probably excited by
drink, interfered in a dispute which had
arisen among a party of civilians, and
drawing his sword, slashed right and left
wounding several persons. The crowd was witnessed the affair became very riotous,
and the interference of the police alone
prevented them from lynching the
officer on the spot. The Emperor has issued a private order to commanders, instructing them to exercise a stricter supervision over their officers, and to severely
punish all offenses against civilians.

A Gala Day in Copenhagen.

COPENHAGEN, May 29.—King Christian
and Queen Louise, accompanied by their imperial and royal guests, attended the festivities at the university yesterday in honor of their golden wedding. The Prince and Princess of Wales, who are
in mourning for their son, have taken part in the fetes attendant upon the celebration of the golden wedding of King Christian and Queen Louise. All the diplomats in Copenhagen attended the celebration. Over 100,000 citizens and Provincials were present. There were 117 different associations represented. In the processions
the students' section of the procession
carried a banner every individual carried a branch of a beech tree, giving that part of
the procession the appearance of a moving
forest. The streets were decorated with the most beautiful decorations. The march past occupied three hours, and was
viewed by the whole royal party.

An Agricultural Pest.

LONDON, May 30.—Diamond-back moths
have been so disastrous to the crops in 1891, have reappeared in Yorkshire and Northumberland.

The Rothschilds Aid Brazil.

ROTHSCHILD, May 30.—It is rumored
that the Rothschilds have undertaken to lend
the Brazilian Government £2,000,000 sterling
to provide in advance for the payment of
its coupons and help to restore the normal
standard of exchange.

Reward Offered for O'Brien.

LONDON, May 30.—Robert T. Lincoln,
the United States Minister here, has issued
a notice offering a reward for the arrest of Thomas O'Brien, the American "lunatic"
star, who recently escaped from the French authorities at Havre after his capture by Oscar E. Williams, the American consul at that place.

The Silver Standard Question.

CALCUTTA, May 30.—The Simla Currency
Association has issued a circular which
says the silver standard has cost India £8,000,000 rupees, which might as well
have been thrown into the sea. The circular adds that the hope of getting England to adopt bi-metallicism, and that the people must help themselves.

A Munificent Bequest.

LONDON, May 30.—The Assembly of the Free Kirk of Scotland at Edinburgh has
been surprised and greatly cheered by the announcement that the deceased New York
millionaire, G. B. Mackenzie, had bequeathed $100,000 as a sustenance fund
for the church. Mr. Mackenzie died before his will was attested, but his children declared that they would execute their
father's intention as expressed in the document.

Fatal Railway Wreck.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 30.—The Red express
from St. Louis to Chicago on the Atchafalaya, Tepeka and Santa Fe railroad was wrecked
about a half of south Lemont, in Chicago
county town about 30 miles from Chicago last night. The engineer, W. A. Lloyd was instantly killed. Ninety passengers were seriously and five slightly injured. Mrs.
Mare Bissell was seriously injured and
probably die.

4 O'clock
EDITION.

VOL. XXIX., NO. 138.

Cholera in Cashmere.

Nearly a Thousand Victims
Die in Four Days.

Storms and Floods Do Great Damage
In Donegal.

Farnell's Brother Declines to Contest
Limerick—Death of Rear Admiral
Mayne, M. P.—The Royal
Golden Wedding.

John Is Not in It.

LONDON, May 29.—John Parnell, brother
of the late Charles S. Parnell, has declined
to contest Limerick for Parliament.

The Noted Fester Goes Crazy.

LONDON, May 29.—Sueci, the fasting
man, has become insane. He has been committed to an asylum.

Death of an M. P.

LONDON, May 28.—Rear Admiral Richard
Charles Mayne, C. B., member of Parliament for Pembroke and Haverford West,
is dead. He was born in 1835, and was a Conservative.

Ravages of Cholera in Cashmere.

CALCUTTA, May 29.—The cholera
epidemic at Serinagar, in the Vale of Cashmere, continues its deadly course. In the last four days, out of 1,723 persons attacked, 990 have died.

Storms and Floods in the Old Land.

DUBLIN, May 29.—Storms and floods are doing immense damage to crops in county Donegal.

During a gale along the Anglesey coast a schooner was driven ashore near Beaumaris, Wales. All the crew except one man were saved.

On 'Change.

LONDON, May 29.—Discount was not
demanded during the past week. The quotations were 3 for three months and 4
for short. The Bank of England's position
continues to improve. The ease of the money market is increasing. Gold flows from abroad, while export inquiry is almost entirely dormant. The silver market is months to come. The silver market is featureless, the bulk of business being export to the East. On the Stock Exchange
business was slightly more active towards
the close of the week.

Military Outrages in Germany.

BERLIN, May 29.—Some military outrages upon civilians are reported from Saxony. An infantry officer of the guard there, who was probably excited by
drink, interfered in a dispute which had
arisen among a party of civilians, and
drawing his sword, slashed right and left
wounding several persons. The crowd was witnessed the affair became very riotous,
and the interference of the police alone
prevented them from lynching the
officer on the spot. The Emperor has issued a private order to commanders, instructing them to exercise a stricter supervision over their officers, and to severely
punish all offenses against civilians.

A Gala Day in Copenhagen.

COPENHAGEN, May 29.—King Christian
and Queen Louise, accompanied by their imperial and royal guests, attended the festivities at the university yesterday in honor of their golden wedding. The Prince and Princess of Wales, who are
in mourning for their son, have taken part in the fetes attendant upon the celebration of the golden wedding of King Christian and Queen Louise. All the diplomats in Copenhagen attended the celebration. Over 100,000 citizens and Provincials were present. There were 117 different associations represented. In the processions
the students' section of the procession
carried a banner every individual carried a branch of a beech tree, giving that part of
the procession the appearance of a moving
forest. The streets were decorated with the most beautiful decorations. The march past occupied three hours, and was viewed by the whole royal party.

An Agricultural Pest.

LONDON, May 30.—Diamond-back moths
have been so disastrous to the crops in 1891, have reappeared in Yorkshire and Northumberland.

The Rothschilds Aid Brazil.

ROTHSCHILD, May 30.—It is rumored
that the Rothschilds have undertaken to lend
the Brazilian Government £2,000,000 sterling
to provide in advance for the payment of
its coupons and help to restore the normal
standard of exchange.

Reward Offered for O'Brien.

LONDON, May 30.—Robert T. Lincoln,
the United States Minister here, has issued
a notice offering a reward for the arrest of Thomas O'Brien, the American "lunatic"
star, who recently escaped from the French authorities at Havre after his capture by Oscar E. Williams, the American consul at that place.

The Silver Standard Question.

CALCUTTA, May 30.—The Simla Currency
Association has issued a circular which
says the silver standard has cost India £8,000,000 rupees, which might as well
have been thrown into the sea. The circular adds that the hope of getting England to adopt bi-metallicism, and that the people must help themselves.

A Munificent Bequest.

LONDON, May 30.—The Assembly of the Free Kirk of Scotland at Edinburgh has
been surprised and greatly cheered by the announcement that the deceased New York
millionaire, G. B. Mackenzie, had bequeathed $100,000 as a sustenance fund
for the church. Mr. Mackenzie died before his will was attested, but his children declared that they would execute their
father's intention as expressed in the document.

Fatal Railway Wreck.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 30.—The Red express
from St. Louis to Chicago on the Atchafalaya, Tepeka and Santa Fe railroad was wrecked
about a half of south Lemont, in Chicago
county town about 30 miles from Chicago last night. The engineer, W. A. Lloyd was instantly killed. Ninety passengers were seriously and five slightly injured. Mrs.
Mare Bissell was seriously injured and
probably die.

4 O'clock
EDITION.

VOL. XXIX., NO. 138.

Cholera in Cashmere.

Nearly a Thousand Victims
Die in Four Days.

Storms and Floods Do Great Damage
In Donegal.

Farnell's Brother Declines to Contest
Limerick—Death of Rear Admiral
Mayne, M. P.—The Royal
Golden Wedding.

John Is Not in It.

LONDON, May 29.—John Parnell, brother
of the late Charles S. Parnell, has declined
to contest Limerick for Parliament.

The Noted Fester Goes Crazy.

LONDON, May 29.—Sueci, the fasting
man, has become insane. He has been committed to an asylum.

Death of an M. P.

LONDON, May 28.—Rear Admiral Richard
Charles Mayne, C. B., member of Parliament for Pembroke and Haverford West,
is dead. He was born in 1835, and was a Conservative.

Ravages of Cholera in Cashmere.

CALCUTTA, May 29.—The cholera
epidemic at Serinagar, in the Vale of Cashmere, continues its deadly course. In the last four days, out of 1,723 persons attacked, 990 have died.

Storms and Floods in the Old Land.

DUBLIN, May 29.—Storms and floods are doing immense damage to crops in county Donegal.

During a gale along the Anglesey coast a schooner was driven ashore near Beaumaris, Wales. All the crew except one man were saved.

On 'Change.

LONDON, May 29.—Discount was not
demanded during the past week. The quotations were 3 for three months and 4
for short. The Bank of England's position continues to improve. The ease of the money market is increasing. Gold flows
from abroad, while export inquiry is almost entirely dormant. The silver market is months to come. The silver market is featureless, the bulk of business being
export to the East. On the Stock Exchange
business was slightly more active towards
the close of the week.

Military Outrages in Germany.

BERLIN, May 29.—Some military outrages upon civilians are reported from Saxony. An infantry officer of the guard there, who was probably excited by
drink, interfered in a dispute which had
arisen among a party of civilians, and
drawing his sword, slashed right and left
wounding several persons. The crowd was witnessed the affair became very riotous,
and the interference of the police alone
prevented them from lynching the
officer on the spot. The Emperor has issued a private order to commanders, instructing them to exercise a stricter supervision over their officers, and to severely
punish all offenses against civilians.

A Gala Day in Copenhagen.

COPENHAGEN, May 29.—King Christian
and Queen Louise, accompanied by their imperial and royal guests, attended the festivities at the university yesterday in honor of their golden wedding. The Prince and Princess of Wales, who are
in mourning for their son, have taken part in the fetes attendant upon the celebration of the golden wedding of King Christian and Queen Louise. All the diplomats in Copenhagen attended the celebration. Over 100,000 citizens and Provincials were present. There were 117 different associations represented. In the processions
the students' section of the procession
carried a banner every individual carried a branch of a beech tree, giving that part of
the procession the appearance of a moving
forest. The streets were decorated with the most beautiful decorations. The march past occupied three hours, and was
viewed by the whole royal party.

An Agricultural Pest.

LONDON, May 30.—Diamond-back moths
have been so disastrous to the crops in 1891, have reappeared in Yorkshire and Northumberland.

The Rothschilds Aid Brazil.

ROTHSCHILD, May 30.—It is rumored
that the Rothschilds have undertaken to lend
the Brazilian Government £2,000,000 sterling
to provide in advance for the payment of
its coupons and help to restore the normal
standard of exchange.

Reward Offered for O'Brien.

LONDON, May 30.—Robert T. Lincoln,
the United States Minister here, has issued
a notice offering a reward for the arrest of Thomas O'Brien, the American "lunatic"
star, who recently escaped from the French authorities at Havre after his capture by Oscar E. Williams, the American consul at that place.

The Silver Standard Question.

CALCUTTA, May 30.—The Simla Currency
Association has issued a circular which
says the silver standard has cost India £8,000,000 rupees, which might as well
have been thrown into the sea. The circular adds that the hope of getting England to adopt bi-metallicism, and that the people must help themselves.

A Munificent Bequest.

LONDON, May 30.—The Assembly of the Free Kirk of Scotland at Edinburgh has
been surprised and greatly cheered by the announcement that the deceased New York
millionaire, G. B. Mackenzie, had bequeathed $100,000 as a sustenance fund
for the church. Mr. Mackenzie died before his will was attested, but his children declared that they would execute their
father's intention as expressed in the document.

Fatal Railway Wreck.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 30.—The Red express
from St. Louis to Chicago on the Atchafalaya, Tepeka and Santa Fe railroad was wrecked
about a half of south Lemont, in Chicago
county town about 30 miles from Chicago last night. The engineer, W. A. Lloyd was instantly killed. Ninety passengers were seriously and five slightly injured. Mrs.
Mare Bissell was seriously injured and
probably die.

4 O'clock
EDITION.

VOL. XXIX., NO. 138.

Cholera in Cashmere.

Nearly a Thousand Victims
Die in Four Days.

Storms and Floods Do Great Damage
In Donegal.

Farnell's Brother Declines to Contest
Limerick—Death of Rear Admiral
Mayne, M. P.—The Royal
Golden Wedding.

John Is Not in It.

LONDON, May 29.—John Parnell, brother
of the late Charles S. Parnell, has declined
to contest Limerick for Parliament.

The Noted Fester Goes Crazy.

LONDON, May 29.—Sueci, the fasting
man, has become insane. He has been committed to an asylum.

Death of an M. P.

LONDON, May 28.—Rear Admiral Richard
Charles Mayne, C. B., member of Parliament for Pembroke and Haverford West,
is dead. He was born in 1835, and was a Conservative.

Ravages of Cholera in Cashmere.

CALCUTTA, May 29.—The cholera
epidemic at Serinagar, in the Vale of Cashmere, continues its deadly course. In the last four days, out of 1,723 persons attacked, 990 have died.

Storms and Floods in the Old Land.

DUBLIN, May 29.—Storms and floods are doing immense damage to crops in county Donegal.

During a gale along the Anglesey coast a schooner was driven ashore near Beaumaris, Wales. All the crew except one man were saved.

On 'Change.

LONDON, May 29.—Discount was not
demanded during the past week. The quotations were 3 for three months and 4
for short. The Bank of England's position
continues to improve. The ease of the money market is increasing. Gold flows
from abroad, while export inquiry is almost entirely dormant. The silver market is months to come. The silver market is featureless, the bulk of business being
export to the East. On the Stock Exchange
business was slightly more active towards
the close of the week.

Military Outrages in Germany.

BERLIN, May 29.—Some military outrages upon civilians are reported from Saxony. An infantry officer of the guard there, who was probably excited by
drink, interfered in a dispute which had
arisen among a party of civilians, and
drawing his sword, slashed right and left
wounding several persons. The crowd was witnessed the affair became very riotous,
and the interference of the police alone
prevented them from lynching the
officer on the spot. The Emperor has issued a private order to commanders, instructing them to exercise a stricter supervision over their officers, and to severely
punish all offenses against civilians.

A Gala Day in Copenhagen.

COPENHAGEN, May 29.—King Christian
and Queen Louise, accompanied by their imperial and royal guests, attended the festivities at the university yesterday in honor of their golden wedding. The Prince and Princess of Wales, who are
in mourning for their son, have taken part in the fetes attendant upon the celebration of the golden wedding of King Christian and Queen Louise. All the diplomats in Copenhagen attended the celebration. Over 100,000 citizens and Provincials were present. There were 117 different associations represented. In the processions
the students' section of the procession
carried a banner every individual carried a branch of a beech tree, giving that part of
the procession the appearance of a moving
forest. The streets were decorated with the most beautiful decorations. The march past occupied three hours, and was
viewed by the whole royal party.

An Agricultural Pest.

LONDON, May 30.—Diamond-back moths
have been so disastrous to the crops in 1891, have reappeared in Yorkshire and Northumberland.

The Rothschilds Aid Brazil.

ROTHSCHILD, May 30.—It is rumored
that the Rothschilds have undertaken to lend
the Brazilian Government £2,000,000 sterling
to provide in advance for the payment of
its coupons and help to restore the normal
standard of exchange.

Reward Offered for O'Brien.

</