CANVAS TOWN

IN A TEMPEST.

Oklahoma Homes Scattered Far Wide by a Gale.

Three Persons Killed—Lightning Destroyed Houses, Barns and Crops in Ontario.

Anadarko, Okla., Aug. 23.—Three persons were killed, two seriously and a number slightly injured, in a heavy rain and hail storm which visited Anadarko. Twenty buildings were almost wrecked, hundreds of tents occupied by homesteaders were torn to pieces, and great quantities of merchandise were strewn far and wide over the prairie.

THE DEAD.
Dr. Mayse, Wichita, Kansas.
W. P. Lewis, Weatherford, Texas.
John Antonio, Paris, Texas.
Injured—Samuel P. Nelson, Kansas City; Daniel Warren.

Anadarko is one of three towns which sprang up after the opening recently by lottery of the Kiowa-Comanche Indian reservation. In less than 30 days the town had reached over 6,000 in population. Buildings were in the course of erection on every hand, while the majority of the population resided in tents.

When the storm came, 20 of the half-finished houses were torn to pieces. Flying timbers caused the fatalities noted while the wind swept the tents into a conglomerate mass, and the rain soaked thousands of dollars' worth of merchandise.

The storm passed over quickly. The moon came out and the boomers immediately set about restoring order.
No hint had come from the steel people on the subject and none has gone out from the workers. There was, however, a tendency among many of the labor leaders today to discuss the possibility of arbitration, and on every side was heard mentioned the name of Gov. W. A. Stone as an arbitrator or conciliator. The news men in the plant to man one mill turn, and the company officials say now that they get the men back.

President Shafter said that no movement has yet been made by either side toward arbitration or mediation.
