Yesterday the city commissioner submitted a report to the property committee, giving his opinion on the contemplated improvements at the eastern part of the Island. He suggests that a canal about seventy feet wide be cut from the small dock at Mead's to the large pond which runs eastward from Blockhouse bay, so that steamers might come right into the pond and land passengers in the park. Besides the great convenience of this place, the free admission of the water from the bay will prevent the waters of the pond from the part. prevent the waters of the pond from stagnating. THE TORONTO REGATTA.

The citizens' committee met at its head-quarters, 41 King street west, last night, Ald. Mitchell in the chair. The arrangements for the regatta were furthered considerably.

Mr. Pete Ball, honorary secretary, reports that there are fifteen entries for the single-scull race, five for the double-scull, and four for the four-oared race. The gathering promises to beat anything that has yet taken place on the continent.

The Toronto, the Bayside and the Nautilus rowing clubs have all offered to afford accommodation at their boat-houses to the visiting oarsmen. Mr. Hanlan and Captain Turner will also be very glad to lend assistance in this direction.

The committee has chartered several steamboats for the regatta. It will have a boat for the referee and pressmen, another for the visiting mayors, another for subscribers to the fund, and two or three for the general public. Subscribers will be the general public. Subscribers will be supplied with badges and tickets according supplied with badges and tickets according to the amounts they contribute.
