TITLE OF 114TH
Ottawa, March 29—Number 4 Divisional Army Service Corps has been authorized, with Lieut.-Col. Dean of Halifax, as commanding officer, and Major Allen of Toronto, as second in command.

Number 1 Headquarters company will be in command of Major F. C. Hearn, of Toronto; No. 8 company, Quebec, by Capt. W. Gillis, of Ottawa. Additional companies are to be raised in Winnipeg and Vancouver.

Lieut.-Col. A. T. Thompson of Ottawa, commanding the 114th Haidaraud Battalion, has secured authorization for a distinctive subsidiary title for his regiment. The battalion will be known as "Brock's Rangers."

It includes from four to five hundred Indians, whose fathers were among the allies of Brock in the famous fight at Queenstown, where Col. Thompson's father also fought. The regimental insignia is a maple leaf with the name and number of the battalion and two crossed tomahawks.

Capt. Gillis mentioned above is a son of Mr. James Gillis of Matapedia, and is well known here.

LETTER FROM THE FRONT

The following is a copy of a letter written by Lt. H. W. Ferguson to his little brother a few days before he received his fatal wound. These last written words are all deeply prized by the late Lieutenant's friends and this one to his little brother is touching and shows the deep interest he had for him even under the stress of this terrible war.

Feb. 28th, 1916.

Dear Walter:

Thanks very much for your letter that you wrote February the seventh and which I received the other day. As your first attempt at letter writing, it is a good one. Isn't it? I was sorry to hear that you have a cold but I hope that you've managed to get rid of it before this letter reaches you, and that you are able to go to school once more. You know Walter, you don't want to miss school any more than you can possibly help. Make up your mind that you're going to be a big man of some account when you grow up and get all the education you can, now that you are young. If you are ever going to be a man that any body thinks worth while, you'll have to keep going to school and not miss any days that you are well enough to go. The little boys out here in Belgium haven't the chance to go to school you have. Their schoolhouses are all knocked down by shells. The little boys over here wear wooden shoes on their feet, strapped on with leather straps. They are not as nice to walk about in as boots are and I don't think you would like them very well. I suppose you are still in the Boy Scouts and are drilling all the time while you are waiting to row up so as to come to the war? Who is your scout-master now? I received a letter from Frank in the same mail with yours and am going to answer it too if I can today. Write again Walter, whenever you feel like it. Goodbye HARRY.

Doctors Agree on Eczema Remedy

Confirm the Statements About D. D. D. Prescription

Geo. T. Richardson, M. D.: "In my opinion, D. D. D. should be applied in all cases of skin disease—an immediate relief to the itch, a calm to excited nerves, soft, soothing, yet a powerful agent, a strength to the general system."

Dr. Unna Holmes: "D. D. D. is as near a specific for eczema and the dreaded psoriasis as is quinine for malaria. I constantly prescribe D. D. D. also for salt rheum, tetter, barber's itch, pimples, all forms of itching eruptions, scales, sores."

Dr. Ira T. Gabbert: "I freely admit that D. D. D. reaches most cases of eczema and permanently cures them." Come to us and we will tell you about this remarkable remedy. Your money back unless the first bottle relieves you. D. D. D. Soap keeps your skin healthy. Ask about it.
