There was no poll held in Albert. The man, the latter being elected for the first been domanded at nomination, two of them, and was Attorney General in the late Gov-Turner and Lewis, filed a declaration of ernment. The vote stood: qualification in due form as required by the statute of 1882. The other three, viz., Rogers, Jonah, and Duffy filed what they supposed to be a declaration of qualification, but in doing so, adopted the form in the censolidated statutes, which had been repealed and superseded by the form in the Act of 1882. The sheriff, deeming the declaration of Turner and Lewis to be the only legal declarations filed in obedience to the statutes, did not enter the names of the other candidates in the poll book or hold any polls, but has intimated his intention of declaring Turner and Lewis elected. There will doubtless be a contest in the courts over this matter.

CHARLOTTE.

The Government Supporters Returned The returns from Charlotte were a surprise to everybody, ex-Speaker Lynott being among the defeated candidates, and Hon. J. Mitchell bringing back with him three supporters.
Mr. Lynott's defeat is said to have been largely due to over confidence in the result.
The returns are as follows:—

A later report says, that Smith, and not Humphrey, is elected, but it lacks confirmation.
