He has not had an absent, way; his thoughts were evidently far away. Left alone he began to mutter aloud to himself.

"Things are going terribly against us. The whole band is lost unless help can reach them goon. Then that precious prisoner of ours is being searched for; and his people, instead of paying his ransom, have set half the country after us. If anything happens, his life shall pay for it, ransom of no ransom—"

A slight movement of the curtain disturbed Don Pablo. He strode agrous the room, lifted the curtain, and locked around.
