THE COLTS' SMALL SCORE

Upper Canada College Cricketers Secure an Easy Victory. The Toronto Coits were all disposed of for 24 runs in their match with Upper Canada College on the Bloor-street grounds yesterday afternoon. Of these Bain hit up 10 and six of the other fellows went out for ducks. With the loss of one wicket the College batsmen put together enough runs to win the match. When Laing and White got together dismay selzed the Colt bowlers, and it was not until time was nearly up that Manning took White's balls in his first over. Laing's inning was another grand exhibition of sound cricket, showing that he is as clever with loose bowling as in facing experts. He made 68 without the semblance of a chance. White's 29 were, well put together. UPPER CANADA

The women had with them six children, the oldest not more than three years old. These little unfortunates were placed in the women's cell with their mothers, to keep the company of shrieking, drunken females with no accommodation other than the bare floors. It may be remarked that the Morality Department with a staff of four officials close business at 6 o'clock or before every evening, exactly at the time when their presence is required. The sight of six little ones forced to herd in a criminal cell made even the policemen feel sick at heart.
