College Returns—Medical Act Proposed Amendments. x esterday was blue Monday at the Local louse with a vengeance. Very little busiss was done, and the little that was transcted was despatched with celerity.

Mr. Waters' bill for the protection of perns employed in places of business other han factories, was read a second time and referred to a select committee.

Two of Mr. Gilmour's bills were read a second time. The first was to amend the street Railway Act and the second provides for several amendments to the Municipal Act. The father of these pieces of legislation was disposed to allow them to pass without comment, but his complacency was confronted with loud cries of, "Explain, explain," from both sides of the House. Complying, he made several short explanations. plain. Trom both sides of the Induse. Com-blying, he made several short explanations. Mr. Meredith wished to know when the emaining returns in connection with the Upper Canada College matter would be laid before the House.

The Executive Committee yesterday listened to J. K. Kerr, Q.C., who appeared for the Mimico Electric Railway Company, who have a bill before the House asking the right to expropriate two small parcels of land to mable them to enter the city by overhead bridges. Some of the members were in favor of trying to effect some sort of a compromise with the company, However, a motion went through instructing the City Solicitor to oppose the clauses in the bill which affect at the city's interest.

The Mayor brought up the Ashbridge's Bay matter again by moving "that the colicitor be instructed to appear before the Private Bills Committee of the Legislature and have the clause in the agreement or bill, which proposed to give the Colonel Alexander syncicate the right to purchase the soft Ashbridge's Bay, struck out."

Ald Leslie wanted the Mayor to add the words: "That the case of the fee simple be set to a vote of the people,"

The Mayor said he had no objection to it psing to the people, but thought it was proposed to see the contact of the people, but thought it was proposed to see the people, but thought it was proposed to see the people, but thought it was proposed to see the people, but thought it was proposed to see the people, but thought it was proposed to see the people, but thought it was proposed to see the people, but thought it was proposed to see the people of the people, but thought it was proposed to see the people of the people, but thought it was proposed to see the people of the p
