A Questionable Horse Sale. New York, Feb. 28.—Monbars was cataloge to be sold by auction to the highest bidder at Tattersalls' iast Thursday, and in the presence of a large crowd of representative horsemen he was a large crowd of representative horsemen he was brought into the ring. A bid of $11,000 was made by Mr. J. Dunn Walton of New York. The auctioneer, Cotonel R. E. Edmonson, stated that the owners were not bidding on the horse and had not commissioned anyone to do so on their behalf. Then Mr. Shults bid $12,000. Mr. Walton promptly bid $18,000 and the horse was knocked down to him. The horse was settled for by Messrs. Richfield & Leathers, his former owners; and he never came into Mr. Walton's possession. Last Sunday a gentleman of reliability stated that previous to the sale he was requested by Messrs. Richfield & Leathers to protect the horse up to $18,000, and was offered $250 to do so. He refused to be a party to such a transaction. The horse was sold back to Messrs. Richfield & Leathers for an advance of $2500 on the price he was supposed to have paid for him. The affair has deeply chagrined the management of Tattersalis.

Hammond of Detroit bid $25,000. The auctioneer worked hard for a raise and finally Joseph Hubinger of New Haven bid $25,000. Hammond then bid $27,000 and the horse was finally Enocked down to him.

A Cocking Main At Hastings HASTINGS, Ont., Feb. 28 .- A cocking main to Hastings, Ont., Feb. 28.—A cocking main took place here last night between a picked number of birds from Belleville and Peterboro. The contest was declared a draw, though it is admitted that the chances of victory were decidedly in favor of Peterboro. At the close each town had one dead bird to its credit and several badly wounded.
