tract this year that makes him go home feeling that failure to make a belie, showing in the race cost him a lot of money. He had a stipulated salary and was to get 10 per cent. of the net profits besides. While the Coumbus club made some little money Deby Bill lost by the ariangement, for he was figuring on the basis of a good year, such as every club in the circuit enjoyed. "Clymer left for his home in Wilkesbarre without signing a contract for next year. It is said that Tinker himself does not know just how things stand until he has a conference with President Wilson, of Chicago. There is a story going the rounds that "Buzz" Wetzel will succeed Clymer, and other names also are mentioned in fancitales. Tinker has not flatly said that Clymer will not be back in 1921."

CHATHAM A. A. A. TO STAGE INDOOR SPORT

Armories Will Be Thrown Open Young Men of Maple City CHATHAM, Oct. 28.—The coming of the present cold snap has led the thoughts of the athletes of the city to indoor sports, and if it continues it will not be long before the armory is the center of the sporting activity of the city. The officers of the regiment in conjunction with the Chatham Amateur Athletic Association have thrown the armory open to the younk men of the city, and have arranged for a number of leagues of indoor baseball, basket ball, handball, tennis and other sports. The first game of the basket ball league has already been arranged, and it will be played a week from Friday night between the C. C. I. and the Alumni of the C. C. I. Painters have finished marking out the armory floor for the baseball, and it is quite likely that a schedule of games will be drawn up at the next meeting of officers to be held on Friday night.

WESTERN HOLDS ITS FIELD DAY TO-DAY In O.H.A. and Also

Western University's annual field day sports will be held this afternoon at Queen's Park. There are in all 13 events on the program and the track will be taped off to the inch in order to preserve the records made. Six of the events, including the 100-yard dash, the quarter-mile and the mile run, the shot-put and the two jumps, will determine the winner of the Brock shield. Any of the athletes breaking records will be awarded gold medals in addition to medals for the winner and runner-up in each event.
