MONTREAL.

In order to meet the constantly increasing demand of the public, and with a view of extending the circulation in QUEBEC, OTTAWA, KINGSTON, BROCKVILLE, and elsewhere, an:

EVENING EDITION

of the DAILY NEWS will henceforward be issued.

The MORNING EDITION will be published at 7 a.m., as heretofore; the EVENING EDITION at 4 p.m., (in time for Trains East and West.) In case of any important event at any time occurring, EXTRA EDITIONS will at once be issued.

Every effort will be made to render the DAILY NEWS worthy of public support.

Telegraphic Despatches; Editorials on topics of general interest; and ALL THE NEWS OF THE DAY up to the hour of going to press.

Great care will be bestowed upon the

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT,

and no pains spared in order to insure the correctness of Market Quotations, &c.

In addition, the DAILY NEWS will contain columns of Interesting Literary and Miscellaneous Matter; and in this day's issue will be found the first two chapters of a beautiful NEW CANADIAN STORY, entitled:

ARMAND DURAND; or, A PROMISE FULFILLED;

written for and presented to the DAILY NEWS, by Mrs. LEPROHON, an authoress well and favorably known.

ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted in the Morning and Evening Editions for one charge.

The circulation of an Evening Edition, added to that of the already large circulation of the DAILY NEWS, will render it one of the best ADVERTISING MEDIUMS in the Dominion, and especially commend it to the notice of those who wish to advertise their business in the most prominent manner.
