

can we do to promote the work of God on the circuit?" Dr. Rice suggested a camp-meeting. Other ministerial brethren approved of the suggestion. Rev. A. B. Hames, pastor of Meadow Lea, took a favorable view and proposed the advisability of holding it at Meadow Lea. A suitable spot for holding it, together with the fact that there were many enthusiastic, devoted and hospitable Methodist families in that neighborhood, were considerations in favor of that place, and it was accordingly decided to hold it there the following September.

In due course of time preparations were made for holding the contemplated series of meetings. A large tent was secured and a car-load of lumber was ordered from Rat Portage. Out of the rough boards thus secured board tents were erected all around the place of meeting. Some were made larger than others, in order that they might be used for prayer-meetings. At the time announced the meetings were opened, with the chairman of the district, Rev. Dr. Rice, in charge. Assisting ministers present besides the chairman and pastor were Revs. Dr. Geo. Young, W. J. Hewitt, J. M. Harrison, Thos. Lawson, Geo. K. Adams, T. W. Hall, T. B. Beynon, A. J. Barltrop, J. W. Bell, W. Halstead, W. Bridgman, T. B. Wil-
