THE ALGOMA MISSIONARY NEWS is the official organ of the Diocese of Algoma. It is published for the Diocese by The Algoma Missionary Press, 44-46 Richmond Street West, Toronto, to whom all subscriptions and communications of a business nature should be sent.

THE ALGOMA MISSIONARY NEWS (New Series) is published monthly. The price for single copies is 5 cents per annum.

Please Note.

1. Be prompt in remitting for renewal or for arrears, and thus aid us in making the ALGOMA MISSIONARY NEWS better and better.

2. Our rule is the same as that of the great majority of newspaper and magazine publishers, namely, to consider each subscriber as permanent until he orders his paper stopped and PAYS UP.

3. No paper should be ordered stopped until all dues are paid.

4. Refusing to take the paper from the office, or returning it to us, is not a sufficient notice to discontinue.

5. If a subscriber wishes his paper discontinued at the expiration of time paid for, notice to that effect must be expressly given. Otherwise, it is assumed that a continuance of the subscription is desired.

6. Send money to Rev. C. Piercy, Sturgeon Falls, either by P.O. Order, Express Order or Postal Note. We cannot be responsible for loose change or stamps.

Notes by the Way.

LOOK not mournfully back into the past, it cometh not again. Wisely improve the present, it is thine. Go forth to meet the future without fear, and with a manly heart.

"God takes the workman, the work goes on." Like a mighty river the Church flows through human history. Its waters ever changing, but the stream ever the same.—Bishop Morrison, of Iowa.

You reap what you sow—not something else, but that. An act of love makes the soul more loving. A deed of humbleness deepens humility. The thing reaped is the very thing sown, multiplied a hundred fold. You have sown the seed of life, you reap life everlasting.—F. W. Robertson.

SUNDAY improvements have been made to the church property in Emsdale recently. The parsonage grounds have been ploughed with a view to making a lawn, and the outbuildings have been improved. A veranda has been erected in front of the parsonage, and the well put in order.

LAST month we acknowledged $244.92 as the sum received from the house-to-house collections in the diocese towards our Mission Fund. This month there is added $163.65, making a total to date of $409.37. No one will blame us if we feel a pride in this added evidence of self-help. There are still some missions to hear from.

THE following note was received by the Bishop, with a small contribution towards the fund named. It is a good example.

MY LORD BISHOP,—Do not, I pray, despise these few cents—they represent a fifth of my latest monetary possession for the B. S. Sustentation Fund.

I am, my lord,
Yours very faithfully,
A GRANDMOTHER

DR. CHARLES INGHAM, the first colonial bishop, was a son of the Church of Ireland clergyman. The greatest and busiest part of his life was spent under the auspices of the S. P. G. It is proposed to put a memorial to him in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, and to unveil it at one of the services in connection with the bicentenary of the S. P. G.

TRUSTING in God and doing our duty. These are words which bind us together. If you and I can feel that those who know us best can say of us that we are trusting God and doing our duty, it is enough to teach us that this is a ground of communion which neither the difference of external rites nor the difference
