

Whereas, The Grand Scribe's report informs us, that a large majority of the Subordinate Divisions, are opposed to the formation of a National Division for the British Provinces at the present time, be it therefore Resolved, that our Representatives to the next Session of the National Division be instructed (should such application be made) to give it their opposition.

Respectfully submitted in L. P. and F.

JAMES MOSHER,
J. W. QUINAN,
R. M. BARRATT.

SOUTH RAWDON, January 28, 1857.

The following resolution was moved by Rev. J. Cameron, seconded by the Grand Worthy Associate, and adopted:—

Resolved, That as a Public Lecturer is absolutely necessary to impart sound information to the inhabitants of this Province on the important subject of Temperance, this Grand Division adopt means to obtain funds necessary to employ one or more efficient Lecturers in the field—and that the matter be committed to the Agency Committee to carry out the intent thereof.

On motion of the Grand Scribe, seconded by the Grand Conductor, it was unanimously Resolved, That the thanks of the Grand Division be presented to the Trustees of the Baptist Meeting House of South Rawdon for the use of their building during the present Session—and also to the Inhabitants of South Rawdon and Upper Newport for the very kind hospitality extended by them to the representatives in attendance at the present Session.

The Minutes of this Session were read and approved.

The Grand Division was closed, to meet at Nictau, Annapolis County, on Wednesday, 22d day of April, at 10 o'clock, a. m.

PATRICK MONAGHAN,

Grand Scribe.

HALIFAX, N. S., 2d February, 1857.
