

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

MARCH, 1880.

An Authorized United States Proposition of Commercial Union...	33
Our Position as a Colony of Great Britain.....	38
Would Great Britain Attempt to Defend Canada?.....	39
The Globe on Colonial Emancipation.....	40
Canada's Desperate Financial Situation.....	41
Mud Throwing at our Neighbours.....	43
The Necessity of a Foreign Market.....	43
The Press on Independence.....	44
A Continental Union.....	45
A Business View of the Situation.....	46
Trying to Dam up the St. Lawrence with Bulrushes.....	47
Let us Sail under our own Colors.....
We Advocate a Distinct Canadian Nationality.....
Reform Debating Club.....
Official Precedence.....
What M. Potter, M.P., saw in the United States.....
Ontario Talk to Hissing and Hysterical Ganders.....
Leading British Statesmen Favor Canadian Independence.....
The Slavish Sycophancy of the Loyalty Howlers.....
Our Exclusion from every Foreign Market.....	59
The Second Number of The Bystander.....	59
The Canadian Government is Powerless.....	61
The Montreal Post on Independence.....	62

