

Sparkles.

THE man who robs a clothes line is not necessarily a laundryman, but he generally takes in washing. Yes, and he is likely to be ironed if he is caught.

WHAT in the Old Version was called "leasing" in the New Version is termed "lying, or falsehood." The real estate agents have brought this on themselves.

A HINT.—Ask your Druggist, Grocer, or Shopkeeper, for a bottle of "Anker-Pain-Expeller." If he passes it down without receiving anything for it, while extracting the quarter dollar from your wallet, if this is the genuine made by Perry Davis & Son.

PHRENOLOGIST: "Your bump of imagination is abnormally large, sir. You should write poetry." Citizen: "I do write poetry. Only yesterday I took a poem to an editor: and that bump you are feeling is where he hit me. Don't bear on it so hard."

A YOUNG man sent fifty cents to a New York advertiser, to learn how to make money fast, and was advised in reply to glue a five dollar greenback to the bottom of his trunk.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

A Reliable Article.

Dr. E. CUTLER, Boston, Mass., says: "I found it to realize the expectations raised, and regard it as a reliable article."

STABLE-KEEPER: "By-the-way, shall I put in my extra buffalo?" English Stranger: "Couldn't you let me 'ave an 'orse, you know? Et'er rather not drive a buffalo first time, you know?"

"Yes," said a lady, when interviewed on the subject of servant girls, "I find that the Swedes make the most capable and trustworthy servants. I never had a Swedish-borgian that did not give perfect satisfaction."

PEARLINE.—James Pyle's Pearline stands pre-eminent as the most valuable acquisition to the laundry, for it very greatly lessens the labour of washing. It should be, as it very generally is, in every household. No family is so rich as to be able to do without it and none so poor as not to be able to afford it. It is obtainable at all grocery stores.

"WHAT do they do when they install a minister?" inquired a small boy. "Do they put him in a stall and feed him?" "Not a bit," said his father; "they harness him to the church and expect him to draw it alone."

PROFESSOR (looking at his watch): "As we have a few more minutes, I shall be glad to answer any question that anyone may wish to ask." Student: "What time is it, please?"

THE decided beneficial effect of Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion in the treatment of female weakness, and nervous prostration, has given it a wide-spread reputation, and in every case the story is the same: "My health is so improved since using it," "I am like a new woman," that we do not hesitate to recommend it to everyone in need of a health restorer.

A LITTLE Scotch boy, on his being rescued by a bystander from the dock into which he had fallen, expressed great gratitude, saying: "I'm so glad you got me out. What a lickin' I wad have frae my mither if I had been drowned."

A GRAND juror, having applied to the judge to be excused from serving on account of his deafness, the judge said: "Could you not hear my charge to the jury, sir?" "Yes; I heard your honour's charge," said the juror. "But I couldn't make any sense of it." He was "excused."

A DESERVED WORD OF PRAISE.

This paper, in common with all the best papers of the Dominion, is very chary in its public commendation of the wares and articles which claim public attention in its advertising columns. When it knows any thing is worthy of special mention, it is frank enough to say so. For the past two or three years our columns have contained many articles (taken from other papers and inserted with our regular reading matter) commendatory of Warner's safe cure. We hear much from it on every hand, and we confess we have been as surprised as gratified, at the reports in circulation concerning it. We know there is a prejudice against the use of unauthorized proprietary medicines and in many cases the prejudice is well founded. In this instance, however, the prejudice seems hurtful only to him who indulges it. We are satisfied from personal investigation that this great preparation has not only a present beneficial effect, but that to a remarkable degree it has a permanent effect, once singular and gratifying, and it is therefore not at all surprising that it should have won such a deserved hold on public favour.

Our well-known Bishop Edward Wilson, of Ottawa, pronounces it "the most valuable and efficacious remedy ever tried. It is like a charm, soothing, relieving and building up so quickly. I commend it without hesitation and often meet with instances where it has proved a great boon."

The Rev. William Henderson, of Prescott, Ont., was unable to fulfil his clerical duties, being utterly prostrated with a bad cough, palpitation of the heart, short breath and liver disorder. In 1883 he was restored to health by the use of this remedy and remains in good health to this day. The Rev. D. A. Brown, a retired Methodist clergyman, of Aultsville, aged seventy-eight, was completely broken down with gravel, bladder catarrh, profuse micturition and general nervous unrest. He underwent fearful operations, but did not amend. Two years ago he began Warner's safe cure and it restored him to health and he now says the effects were decidedly permanent. The Rev. George Watermann, of Winborne, Eng., was completely under the power of Bright's disease of the kidneys and was given up by the best London specialists. Two years ago he began this remedy and in a recently published statement we see he is fully restored to health. We might multiply instances without number—everything we hear of it confirms our belief that this preparation is one of the most praiseworthy ever discovered. Endorsement from such sources as we have named ought to discount the possibility of any scepticism.

FINE PIANOS.

(From the Baltimore American.)

There is one branch of mechanical industry of which Baltimore has good reason to feel proud, and to lay claim to superiority over all similar manufactures in the world, and that is its pianos. Much, if not all of the credit for the rapid strides in this direction is due to the world renowned manufacturers, Wm. Knabe & Co. Wherever a taste for music is to be cultivated, there will be found one of Knabe's celebrated pianos. It would be useless to enumerate the many expositions at which they have taken prizes, inasmuch as the public has been from time to time informed of the different awards. Since then there have been improvements made on the improvements, which were at the time thought to be perfection; and today the Knabe organ stands unsurpassed in tone and quality. Now that the interior work of the instrument has been perfected, the outer covering is receiving due attention. Among the latest styles of cases turned out at their factory are those made of rosewood and mahogany, with beautifully inlaid work, and those of mahogany, with inlaid brass and ebony, with artistic fancy work, are to be had in either square or upright pianos.

INFLUENZA.—This is an epidemic worse and more depressing than an ordinary cold, and requires prompt remedies to break it up. Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is a trustworthy remedy for all forms of colds and their dangerous results.

Doctor R. is jovial. No one takes the loss of patients more easily. Yesterday he went to visit one of his clients, suffering from pleurisy. The porter stopped him. "Your patient died last night." "Good!" cried the doctor; "I am pressed for time this morning."

PROF. LOW'S MAGIC SULPHUR SOAP.—Healing, soothing and cleansing for all eruptions, diseases of the skin. Delightful for toilet use.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN Hair Renewer.

Seldom does a popular remedy win such a strong hold upon the public confidence as has HALL'S HAIR RENEWER. The cases in which it has accomplished a complete restoration of color to too hair, and vigorous health to the scalp, are innumerable.

Old people like it for its wonderful power to restore to their whitening locks their original color and beauty. Middle-aged people like it because it prevents them from getting bald, keeps dandruff away, and makes the hair grow thick and strong. Young ladies like it as a dressing because it gives the hair a beautiful glossy lustre, and enables them to dress it in whatever form they wish. Thus it is the favorite of all, and it has become so simply because it disappoints no one.
