The Critical and Expository
BIBLE CYCLOPEDIA

BY THE
REV. A. R. FAUSSET, D.D.,
CANON OF YORK,
Joint Author of the "Critical and Experimental Commentary," by Jamieson, Fausset and Brown.
750 pages. Illustrated by Six Hundred Woodcuts. Cheap edition, unabridged. Eighth thousand. $2.50. Cloth. Red edges.
This grand volume contains 3,700 articles from A to Z, and presents a completeness, conciseness and thoroughness such as should be found in a perfect Bible Encyclopædia—a work of the greatest value to students and teachers of all denominations.

"Unique, learned, accurate, valuable."—REV. DR. T. DEWITT TALMAGE.
MR. SPURGEON consulted it "continually." He wrote:—"Fausset's Bible Cyclopædia is really a standard work. We consult it continually, and with growing interest."

A KING OF TYRE

A Tale of the Times of Ezra and Nehemiah.
By JAMES M. LUDLOW, D.D., Author of
"The Captain of the Janizaries," etc.
301 pp. 16mo. Cloth, Ornamental,

$1.00.
NEW EDITION NOW READY.

In "A King of Tyre" we live and move amid old ideas, old superstitions, and an extinct civilization. But this vanished order of things the author has pierced to the core, and laid bare the human heart that animates it all. When we say that his tale is interesting, that it is satisfying, that it is dramatically conclusive, we give it high praise, yet we give it deliberately, and are convinced that the opinion of all intelligent readers will confirm the verdict.—Churchman, N. Y.

Vivid with the richness of Oriental habits and customs, and the weird accompaniments of pagan worship, this tale of the times after the return of the Hebrews to their own land, will hold the attention of the reader with unflagging interest. Its development shows marked ability and skill. There is an historical basis to the story which gives it additional attraction.—Living Church, Chicago.

Will enhance the reputation of the author, and can be welcomed as not only a novel of absorbing interest, but a faithful study and portraiture of an eventful historical period.—Christian Intelligencer, N. Y.

The ideal book for Sunday-school libraries.
—Dr. HENRY M. FIELD, in the Evangelist, N. Y.

Under the approval of the Ontario Government, the Company is accepted by the High Court of Justice as a Trustee (Company) and from its organization has been employed by the Court for the investment of Court Funds. The Company acts as Executor, Administrator, Receiver, Committee of Lunatics, Guardian of Children, Assignee of Estates, Agent, etc., and as Trustee under Deeds, Wills, or Court Appointments or Substitutions; also, as Agent for Executors, Trustees and others, thus relieving them from onerous and disagreeable duties. It obtains the need of security for administration.
The Company invests money, at best rates, in first mortgage or other securities; collects Rents, Interest, Dividends, acts as Agent in all kinds of financial business, issues and counterfeits Bonds and Debentures.
Safes and Compartments varying from the small box, for those wishing to preserve a few papers, to large safes for firms and corporations, are rented at low rates, and afford ample security against loss by fire, robbery or accident. Bonds, Stocks, Deeds, Wills, Jewellery and other valuables are also stored. An examination of these vaults by the public is requested.
