

CHICAGO MARKET.

A FAIRLY ACTIVE BUSINESS.
PRICES OPEN STRONG BUT CLOSE WEAK.
CORN DECLINES BUT NEWS IS BULLISH.

Provisions Slow and Lower.

Chicago, Nov. 1.

The movement of wheat from Southern Ohio, Indianapolis and Illinois the past week for export via Baltimore, has been very liberal. Cincinnati shippers have gathered a good portion of it and sold to Baltimore exporters. At present it is difficult to estimate the quantity. Farmers, evidently, are very willing to sell, as soon as the price gets much above 65c.

Cash wheat to-day was 66c. Dec. after opening strong at 67½c closes weak at 66½, May also loses ½ on the day.

Corn sold at 34½ for May, but declined to 34, where it closes.

Pork sold down 15c and Lard 7½d.

SPECIAL.

Special to Bartlett, Frazier Co., 39 St. Sacramento street: The consumption of corn in Europe continues to be enormous. Stocks there are running down. The quantity used for feeding cattle and hogs through the Corn belt in the United States is larger than for several years past. This burning of the candle at both ends will be felt ere long and the speculative contingent will wake up to the real conditions. We think much higher prices will be realized. We feel very friendly to May corn.
