Lieutenant Colonel Kirkpatrick, M. P., commanding 47th Battalion, Kingston, is to command the team this year; and Captain O. R. Arnold of the 57th Battalion, of Sussex, New Brunswick, has been appointed second officer.

Mr. Disraeli has had a great triumph on Mr. James' motion of censure in regard to the terms of the proclamation, which gave effect to the Royal Titles Bill. The Ministerial majority was one hundred and four, about double what it has been on ordinary occasions of late. Mr. Lowe's speech at Bedford, in which he untruly, however unintentional the untruth may have been, stated that two previous Premiers, understood to be Lord Palmerston and Mr. Gladstone, had refused to make a change in the royal titles, at the request of the Queen, was without doubt the principal cause of the increased majority, and it is noticeable that neither he nor Mr. Gladstone spoke in the debate, although they are by far the strongest men of the Liberal part in the Commons. Such speeches go Mr. Lowe, as the one alluded to, will, it is stated, ensure that Mr. Forester, his great rival, will yet be First Minister in a Liberal Government. The conflict in the Royal circle in England over the question of precedence when the Princess Maria, Duchess of Edinburgh, arrived in the country, was perhaps the chief cause of the recent addition to the titles of the Queen.

The annual convention of riflemen was held at Creedmoor on the 26th. Col. Gildersleeve, presiding; and Col. Wingate, Secretary. Resolutions were passed requesting the National Rifle Association to provide a cartoon shooting at all the ranges in future matches, also an off hand time match, at 200 yards; also, that in military matches they use the rifle in use by the organization which they represent.

This overskirt is quite different from any other, though very simple and graceful; the sash, or panter back effect is produced by the novel way of draping, and though it has the appearance of a separate part, it is all one thing, and one of its chief attractions is its convenient shape for making over by any other pattern. It is intended for any kind of fabric, and will be a great favorite for wash materials the coming summer. Paris houses are now using it for their model in preparing suits for the spring season.

Price of Pattern with Cloth Model, 50 Cents, Mailed

SMITH'S INSTANT DRESS ELEVATOR. This Cut shows the Upper Part of the Skirt (wrong side out), with the "Elevator" fixed in. You can raise your skirt while passing a muddy place, and then let it fall.
