INDUCTION OF REV. D. J. MACDONNELL, B.D., INTO THE CHARGE OF ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH, TORONTO.—The Presbytery of Victoria having consented to translate Mr. Macdonnell, on his acceptance of a numerously signed and harmonious call from Toronto, the Presbytery of Toronto met in St. Andrew's Church, on the 22nd December, 1870, for the induction of Mr. MacDonnell, as the successor of the Rev. Dr. Barclay, resigned. In accordance with the terms of public notice given from the pulpit on the previous Sabbath, the members of the congregation were in attendance in large numbers. After the usual proclamation, Divine Service was performed by the Rev. Mr. Carmichael (West King) who had been appointed to preach on the occasion. The sermon from the words I. Thess. iii. 8, "For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord," was in every way worthy of so important an occasion, being characterized by the solid thought, terse language, and true eloquence for which Mr. Carmichael has been for long distinguished. The address to the minister was delivered by request by Mr. Macdonnell's father, the minister of Milton, who thereby relieved Mr. MacLennan of the duty to which he had been appointed. As was to have been expected, this part of the service was marked by an affectionate tenderness, and chaste simplicity—the proper effect of which, however, was diminished by a severe cold under which the speaker was labouring. The public services were brought to a close by a few sagacious counsels addressed to the congregation by the minister of Scarborough. The style in which this duty was performed was so characteristic as to have elicited no ordinary share of admiration. Sound sense, couched in pithy language, flights of bold eloquence, and flashes of genial humour, formed such a peculiar combination of unity and variety as scarce another clergyman in the Church could have exhibited.

Public worship ended, a very cordial welcome was given to Mr. MacDonnell by the members of his congregation, who religiously observed this very becoming part of our procedure at an induction.

It might offend the modesty of such friends of the Church as Messrs. Fulton and Michie have proved themselves by many worthy acts to be, to allude very particularly to their hospitalities extended to the members of Presbytery and their wives, together with the office-bearers of the congregation in the elegant supper given at their joint residence after the induction. Suffice it to say that ample justice was done to the entertainment, and that during its progress the members of Presbytery and the office-bearers of the Church gave such manifestations of personal friendship to the newly-inducted minister, as might have been gratifying to any one called to an important position. It is fondly hoped that Mr. MacDonnell's labours in his new field may bring much advantage to the Church, and increase his own well-earned reputation.
