THE STANDARD

Will, so far as a newspaper can, express the views and principles of true Liberal Conservatism in Canada. Believing the policy of Sir John Macdonald, his Ministry, and the party he leads, to be bound up with the progress and the development of our common country, we have no hesitation in according the fullest support to that policy, that leader, and that party. We shall advocate Liberal Conservative views based upon Liberal Conservative principles, and that advocacy we trust to make energetic as well as effective. The best writers in Canada will contribute to THE STANDARD, and it shall be our duty to see that their productions reach the masses of the people.
