

7. Prohibited Activities

A trainee shall not

- (a) be required to participate in any form of combat operations either in or out of Canada or in aid of the civil power; or
- (b) be required to perform any function, duty or act that is inconsistent with the purpose of this Statement.

8. Canadian Law

Trainees will be subject to the jurisdiction of Canadian civil courts in respect of any act or omission constituting an offence against any law in force in Canada alleged to have been committed by them.

9. Security

Canada shall ensure the security and protection within Canada of the persons and property of trainees.

10. The sending State shall ensure that a trainee shall not, after cessation of his training, disclose to any other government or to any unauthorized person, classified Canadian information of which he may become cognizant in his capacity as a trainee.

11. Claims

Canada waives all claims against the sending State for damage done to any property owned by Canada where such damage is caused by a trainee acting in the course of his official duties.

12. Canada and the sending State waive all claims against each other for injury or death suffered by a trainee or a member of the Canadian Forces while either is engaged in the performance of his official duties. Where a claim is made against Canada by any other person for the injury or death suffered by a trainee, the sending State shall indemnify Canada in respect of costs incurred by Canada in dealing with the claim.

13. A claim against Canada arising out of an act done or an omission of anything by a trainee, done or omitted in the performance of his official duties, shall be assimilated to, and be dealt with by Canada as if it were a claim arising out of the activities of the Canadian Forces in Canada.

14. Where costs incurred by Canada in satisfying a claim mentioned in paragraph 13 of this Statement are not a minor administrative cost, 75% of the costs incurred shall be chargeable to the sending State.

15. Immigration

On entry into or exit from Canada a trainee shall be required to produce only

- (a) a personal identity card; and
- (b) an individual or collective movement order issued by the appropriate authorities of the sending State.

16. A trainee shall not by virtue of his presence in Canada under this Statement acquire any right to residence or domicile in Canada.

17. Termination of Training

Canada or the sending State may terminate the training of an individual trainee at any time during the continuance of this Statement and each shall give to the other reasonable notification of its intention so to do.
