

employment and higher earnings, to the study of social security problems now being carried out in Canada, in order that these former conditions of national life may be averted in the coming years of peace.