

the mention that wealth is being distributed more inequitably than ever, and that real wages have plummeted over the last 15 years.

Mexico is being militarized to an unprecedented extent, and the security crisis is worsening. There is a perception that Canada is ignoring the crisis, leaving the US to direct military affairs in Mexico under NAFTA.