

9. Health and Education are basic human rights, denied to many women and the girl child.

Action:

Increase the flow of relevant information and give women basic education and a high standard of health care services