

destruction threat reduction), as well as international scholarships to non-ODA eligible countries and services rendered abroad, among others. This diverse range of programming, totalling $431.35 million in international assistance for 2012–2013, reflects the broad scope of DFAIT's work.