

18th June 1992

The Secretary of State for Health, Mr. Kenneth Clarke, was asked to answer the following questions:

1. Will the Secretary of State be able to provide a list of the names of the people who have been granted a licence to import a medicine from another country into the United Kingdom?

2. Will the Secretary of State be able to provide a list of the names of the people who have been granted a licence to import a medicine from another country into the United Kingdom?

3. Will the Secretary of State be able to provide a list of the names of the people who have been granted a licence to import a medicine from another country into the United Kingdom?

4. Will the Secretary of State be able to provide a list of the names of the people who have been granted a licence to import a medicine from another country into the United Kingdom?

5. Will the Secretary of State be able to provide a list of the names of the people who have been granted a licence to import a medicine from another country into the United Kingdom?

6. Will the Secretary of State be able to provide a list of the names of the people who have been granted a licence to import a medicine from another country into the United Kingdom?

7. Will the Secretary of State be able to provide a list of the names of the people who have been granted a licence to import a medicine from another country into the United Kingdom?

8. Will the Secretary of State be able to provide a list of the names of the people who have been granted a licence to import a medicine from another country into the United Kingdom?

9. Will the Secretary of State be able to provide a list of the names of the people who have been granted a licence to import a medicine from another country into the United Kingdom?

10. Will the Secretary of State be able to provide a list of the names of the people who have been granted a licence to import a medicine from another country into the United Kingdom?