facts in a concrete way will cause him to take such steps as he may think necessary.

I wonder if in view of the foregoing you would give your approval to the work which we are doing. An endorsement from you would go a long way towards bringing many parents to decide that their children shall have all the advantages of a college education. If this meets with your approval I am sure that the other members of the Advisory Council as well as myself would appreciate your co-operation in this matter.

With kindest regards, I am

Yours very truly,
