

April 11th, 1923.

Dr. C. Armstrong,
Dean, Faculty of Medicine,
McGill University.

Dear Dr. Armstrong,

The Officer Commanding this Unit has reported to the Military Committee how your Office assisted him at the close of ^{last} the Session, by interviewing those students who had delayed in the return of their Uniform and Equipment.

On behalf of the Military Committee,
I wish to thank you for this service.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.
McGill University.