From GEORGE G. RAMSAY, M.A., Professor of Humanity
in the University of Glasgow.

April 1st, 1879.

MR. J. H. MUIRHEAD was a very distinguished Student of this University, especially in the departments of Classics and Philosophy. He attended the Latin Classes for two years, and during that time carried off several of the highest prizes open to him. He showed himself to be an excellent scholar, a sound thinker, and a most industrious worker. In his second year he carried off the chief of our open Scholarships or Bursaries, and at the close of his career here gained by competition an open Snell Exhibition to Balliol College, Oxford. At Oxford he has more than maintained the promise of his earlier career, and I have no doubt that he is in all respects well fitted for such a post as that of Professor of Classics in the University of Christ Church.
