

could but further the work of the Church Society in the Eastern Township Missions. In his college he was the centre of all true Christian life, spending and being spent for his Master's service, attracting men of various schools of thought by the gentleness and urbanity of his manners.

Your Board cannot close this report without referring to the very generous gift to the Church Society, by the Rev. A. W. Mountain, M.A., Mrs. Nicolls and Miss Mountain, of the whole of the Bardfield property, together with thirteen shares in the capital stock of the Bank of Montreal, to be held by the Society in trust for the creation of one or more archdeaconries or a future bishopric, in the event of the sub-division of the diocese. Such generosity cannot fail to add another link to the chain of gratitude and affection which binds this diocese to the family of its late bishop.

All which is respectfully submitted.
