

holy will,—that spirit of penance and disengagement from the things of this life, which will render your sufferings meritorious, and inspire you with confidence, at any moment he may call upon you to leave this world. What have you to fear with this heavenly protector at your side? Under his guidance, you may truly say, in the words of the royal Prophet: “ Though I should walk in the midst of the shadow of death, I will fear no evils, for thou art with me.” Let this be the subject of your reflections, and it will prove a source of great consolation during life, as well as at the hour of death.

His expletis, si altera Particula Sacramenti super- fuerit [superesse autem semper debet, præterquam in casu jam dicto], genuflectit, surgit, et accipiens vas cum Sacramento, facit cum eo signum crucis super infirmum, nihil dicens, et reverenter illud deferens, ordine quo venerat, revertitur ad Ecclesiam, dicendo Psalmum Laudate Dominum de cœlis, et alios Psalmos et Hymnos, prout tempus feret.

Cum pervenerit ad Ecclesiam, ponet Sacramentum super altare, adorât, deinde dicit:

V. Panem de Cœlo præstitisti eis,

R. Omne delectamentum in se habentem.

V. Dominus vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.