Thompson & Ferguson, general storekeepers, Granite Creek, have dissolved partnership, A. B. Ferguson retiring from the business.

Reports come from Leon Bar on Fraser river, that Chinamen are making good wages mining, taking out from $8 to $10 to the hand per day.

A huge sturgeon hanging in front of the Vancouver market attracted the attention of passers by recently. In length it measured nine feet five inches, was four feet in the thickest girth and weighed 450 pounds.

Of the three thousand miners who rushed into the Granite Creek mines last spring, about 100 white men and 150 Chinamen are remaining to winter there. One miner is reported to have taken out 50 pounds weight of gold this season.

A scheme is being considered at Calgary for the supplying of that place with a water and sewerage system.
