HOFFMAN WINS FEATURE BEATS JUDGE MONCH

Corney K at 15 to 1 Defeats Rye Straw in Selling Race-Results at Pensacola.

NORFOLK, Va., April 24.-Hoffman, a heavily-played favorite in the Chesapeake Purse at the Jamestown course, won the feature race by a length from Judge Monck. Rye Straw in the fifth race, got off badly and lost to Cooney K., a 15 to 1 shot, by a neck. Jockey Edwards tried to come thru on the rail entering the home stretch, with Black Chief. The space was so narrow that the horse and boy were thrown against the rail and Edwards had his leg severely hurt. After the finish the boy fell off Black Chief and was carried to the paddock. This was ladies' day and over 4000 people viewed the races. The track was heavy. FIRST RACE, seffing, 4-year-olds and up, 6 furlongs:

1. Warden, 107 (Dumn), 12 to 5, even and 1 to 2. heavily-played favorite in the Chesapeake

Moore Park defeated Wychwood by 2 to 0 at Wychwood on Saturday in their first league engagement. Williams, Oakd-and Highet were always there. S. Banks refereed the game, and his rulings were at all times of fair order.

The Scots beat the Devons by 2 to 0 in their first league game at Dovercourt Park on Saturday afternoon. For the Scots, the defence, Robb, Pearson and Galbraith, played fine ball, also the halves, Milne, Valentine and Laurie. The forwards were a little weak at goal, but with a little practice should put up a good showing. Valentine at centre-half was the star of the afternoon. The Scots line-up was as follows: Goal, Robb; backs, Pearson and Galbraith; halves, Milne, Valentine and Laurie; forwards. Mathieson, Hooper, "Keddie, Jones and Barr.

The Scots will practise at St. Simon's gymnasium, corner Howard and Ontario-streets, on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, and all players now signed, and any others wishing a game, are requested to be on hand for a good work-out.
