The two attacks delivered west of Al-bert last evening came at an interval of only a quarter of an hour, at 6.30 and 6.45 o'clock. Tho the assaults were launched determinedly, they were beaten back with heavy losses. The immediate objective of the Ger-mans in their attacks below the Somme undoubtedly is the Paris-Amiens raii-way, which runs close to the battle line. They continue to push against the de-fending wall, which checks them in their drive toward Amiens. $85 each. Rice & Whaley.
