ANOTHER DECLINE

Competition From Argentina and President Wilson's Illness Depress Prices.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Sudden development of competition from Argentina had a decided bearish effect today on the cornnarket, and so, too, did uneasiness re-

ON CHICAGO MARKET

Tomenson, Forwood Co. received the following Chicago wire from Thomson, McKinnon Co.:

Corn—Further importations of Argentine corn at considerably less than domestic values, together with a bearish resume of Argentine situation by Mr. Broomhall, demonstrated the fallacy of anticipating higher prices when anticipation is based upon a local demand for cash corn. The edge is off cash demand, altho no weakness appeared, as receipts are light. Values finished about 3c lower. Country offerings of new corn are said to be a trifle more general.

Oats—There has been further business in cash oats to the seaboard, but this demand is entirely for heavyweight oats. The bulk of this year's crop is lightweight, and not in demand from any sources. However, the crop is sufficiently good for all purposes and will fill the contracts for December and May delivery.

Vessels leaving Canada will be confronted with the same will be confronted with the same problem which the United States shipping board foresees, namely, the difficulty in unloading when the docks are already overloaded. There is still another factor which may play detrimentally on business and that is the labor market. Men high up in commercial life look for a good deal of unemployment this coming winter despite the fact that it is almost impossible to secure labor of any kind at present. If many men find themselves out of work it is bound to have a dampening effect on trade, especially the retall business.

Many price changes are being brought about. Foodstuffs are in many cases dropping to lower levels. In the past few days there have been noticeable changes in meat prices. Further recessions are heralded by the commerce board looking into prices generally.

MININGMARKS REMAINS QUIET

Wasapika Repeats High-Record Price - Hollinger Off Four Points.

The mining market was again qutet yesterday, and showed a slightly resctionary trend, altho losses for the most part were negligible. The price of ullver had a setback of about two ceats an ounce in the New York market yesterday, but the reaction was a moderate one after the big advance of the past week or two, and it would not surprise some of those/who follow the course of the white metal with close attention if the upward course were resumed in so decided a manner as to leave Thursday's high record mark of $1.20\fomath{\fomath}{4}$ far in the rear. However, the Cobalts are showing a puzzling failure to waken up, although the producing mines are in the best of condition to take advantage of the lofty price prevailing for silver. As for the gold mines the shortage of labor is not being relieved to the extent that had been looked for, but there should be a material betterment in this respect before the winter months are over.

Wasapika was again a strong spot among the gold stocks, repeating its high record price of $1.03 and closing at the top. McIntyre held at $1.95. Keora rose half a point to 19\fomath{\fomath}{2}$, but fell back to 19 again. Hollinger, which had drawn attention the previous day by a ninepoint rise to $6.89, forfeited four points of the gain yesterday, and Dome sold off to $14.75, as compared with $15, the prevailing price for several days previously. Other recessions included: Davidson, a point to 66; Kirkland Lake, 1\fomath{\fomath}{2}$ to 19\fomath{\fomath}{2}$; West Dome, \fomath{\fomath}{2}$ to 19\fomath{\fomath}{3}$; West Dome, \fomath{\fomath}{4}$ to 11, and Peterson Lake, \fomath{\fomath}{4}$ to 12\fomath{\fomath}{4}$. In the Cobalts Nipissing declined 10c a share to $11.75; Crown Reserve, 3\fomath{\fomath}{4}$ to 88; Timiskaming, a point to 42\fomath{\fomath}{4}$; and Peterson Lake, \fomath{\fomath}{4}$ to 12\fomath{\fomath}{4}$. and Adanac \fomath{\fomath}{4}$ off at 12\fomath{\fomath}{4}$.
