Equipped with some effective data ndicating the great advance in the cost of education for pupils in Toronto, the board of control raised a formidable argument against the demands for swelling increases in salaries of school teachers,

While it was admitted that the city could not adopt any repressive mea-sure this year, it was intimated that the patience of the controllers was ex-hausted, and that an attempt would be made to obtain legislation that would hold the board of education in eneck for future years. ALL THESE BOOK AND RECORD VITH LITTLE EPFORT IN HALF UNWORTHY OF LICENSES License Enquiry Probes Further Into Loans of Brewers to Tied Houses.

The license enquiry held a short ses sion yesterday morning. Commissioner Starr called up the li consees whose hotels had been described as being, under the Liberal regime, "filthy and abominable." The present commissioners had forced them into extensive improvements, but explanations about the past were reuired of them.

was suffered, will be examined to-day. Unsecured Loans. W: T. Kernaham of O'Keefe's and R. Reinhardt were examined further about the mortgages held by their com-paries upon licensed properties. It appeared that most of the firms who gave reports had a sort of con-science clause to them, and mentally reserved the "private loans" and un-secured loans from public statement. Frank Hodgins, K. C., successfully put the probe in, and elicited the in-teresting fact that moneys had been lent without security, and were not recorded.

W. T. Kernahan, secretary, treasurer of the O'Keefe Brewing Co., was the first witness. He admitted that, in addition to some mortgages, they held some loans that were not secured. All ad been made prior to the new regu-
