SHE SAW HER PEOPLE

presented to Her Majesty in 1887 by the Daughters of the Empire.

LITERATURE WAS IGNORED.

London, June 22.—The Times and all the morning papers contain long telegrams from all the colonies describing the enthusiasm in connection with the Jubilee fetes. The editorials express a rather quiet satisfaction over the Jubilee honors, though the Liberal organs betray some measure of disappointment. Literature is practically ignored. There is unanimous approval, however, of the honors conferred upon colonial statesmen, and this is especially keen in the case of Mr. Wilfrid Laurier. The admission of the Premiers to the Privy Council is regarded as a sort of recognition of the right of the colonies to share in the Imperial councils.

The Daily Chronicle says: "If, as we believe, this was Mr. Chamberlain's idea, we heartly congratulate him."

CELEBRATING EVERYWHERE,

Total Anthem, and the crowd joined in singing "God Save the Queen," which was surg of the cown, which was surg by tens of thousands of voices surrounding Her Majesty until she was out of sight. Before leaving, the Prince of Wales turned his horse and waved his hand to the Lord Mayor's party.

London, June 23.—The Times, referring editorially to the presence of the United States troops at the Jubilee review in Ottawa, says: "The news of this incident will be hailed with satisfaction throughout the length and breadth of the Empire. They, too, are of our blood, speak our tongue and understand, as we understand, the blessing of civil and religious liberty under strong, intelligent government. They have attained it by means different from ours; but, that does not prevent them from joining us, at the bottom of their hearts in the prayer 'God Save the Queen.'"

dWedin any

our his-rs seem

e 20 to ount we

a gift & not see & able in &

ou will 3

me nice

130-132 NGE ST.

000000

CAME

POINT

Toronto.

CASSA

along the ession, but to reacher of fact, vin reachwhich to h the made to leave the morn-office a re-Press was to Buck-ession, the expressed faction at fe, Prince mark and diamond

Majesty
nks, with ntre bear7, and on e in brit-

necklace,

London, June 22.—By S o'clock this morning all of the stands surrounding Buckingham Palace were filled, and when the colonial procession came in sight, with Lord Roberts of Kandahar, the commander of the forces in Ireland, at their head, riding a superb Arabian borse, they met with a tremendous reception. The Canadiam Premier, the Right Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in a cocked hat and uniform, and having his wife beside him, was very well received. They both bowed constantly to the cheers with which they were greeted wherever recognized.

The Canadian troops evoked approving comments on all sides; but the feature of the colonial procession was the detachment of Rhodesian Horse, headed by Captain Maurice Giffard, the well-known South African officer, with his armless sleeve showing strong evidence of active service.

The Canadian Premier, the Right Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, met with an especially warm reception at the colonial stands opposite the Horse Guards. He afterwards sald to a representative of the Associated Press;

"I was greatly impressed by the feature of the Associated Press;

"I was greatly impressed by the feature of the Associated Press;

"I was greatly impressed by the feature of the Associated Press;

"I was greatly impressed by the feature of the Associated Press;

"I was greatly impressed by the form His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor regretting his highlity to be present."

As the Queen drove under the archway, punctual to a second, the first cannon shot of the royal salute was fired and announced to the waiting millions that Her Majesty was on her way through London. The Queen met with a most enthusiastic reception, and so soon as she emerged from the Palace gates she began bowing right and left to the cheering of her people.

A Pretty Scene.

When Her Majesty reached the Mansion House, on her way to St. Paul's Cathedral, her reception was a magnificent one. The Lady Mayoress was attended by her daughters. Mrs. Henriques, formerly Miss Nellie Phillips and Miss Stella Phillips; Mrs. Sheriff Rogers, Miss Ritchie, the daughter of Sheriff Ritchie, and Lady Pirvright. They occupied a crimson platform, with the aldermen to the right and left of them. The Lady Mayoress presented to Her Majesty a gorgeous bouquet of orchids, in a silver filagree basket, the handles being surmounted by a lovers' knot, on which was engraved:

"To Her Majesty Queen Victoria: presented by Helen Faudel-Phillips, Lady Mayoress."

In presenting the flowers, the Lady Mayoress, who was in mourning, and Mayoress, who was in mourning, and attired in black with powdered hatr

The Queen twice repiled: "I am deeply grateful."
Her Majesty smiled, and was evidently greatly pleased and looked fresh and bright. She took the flowers, passed them to the Princess of Wales and put out her hand to the Lady Mayoress to kiss. The latter, undoubtedly agitated by the splendor of the occasion, shook Her Majesty's hand instead of kissing it.

London, June 22.—This evening Her Majesty gave a family dinner party in the state supper room of Buckingham Palace at a quarter to nine. All the members of the royal family were present, as well as all the royal guests. Their suites dined in the garden vestibule.

Foreign Newspapers Publish Enlogistic
Arsteles Upon the Jubilee.

London, June 22.—Despatches received to-day from all the British colonies and mounce the holding of Jubilee reviews, afficial receptions, the giving of dinners to-day to the poor, and the Illumination of cities throughout the British Empire to-night.

In addition to the celebrations in all the British colonies, nearly all the foreign cities have fetes, decorations and illuminations to-day, in honor of the Jubilee of Queen Victoria. In the Italian Chamber of Deputies to-day, there were warm references to the Jubilee, and the House sent a message to the British Parliament, expressing congratulations upon the celebration.

The foreign newspapers as a rule publish eulogistic articles upon the Jubilee.

SIR WILFRID WAS TICKLED

With the Ovation He Received From the Immense Crowds.

afterwards said to a representative of the Associated Press:

"I was greatly impressed by the splendor of the day's ceremony and by the enthusiastic ovations received from the immense crowds."

Notes of the Parade.

The Lady Mayoress sheek the Queen's Mand, But it was All Right.

London, June 22.—It was 9.50 when the head of the procession of the colonial orably. Lord Howe is in his 76th year.

Toranta Jubilee Notes.

At the conclusion of the concert in the grand stand the Mayor read a letter of regretting his inability to be present, and also the letter from the Queen to Lord Aberdeen, given in another column.

Notes of the Parade.

The Lady Mayoress sheek the Queen's more crowded or more orderly than last might.

London, June 22.—It was 9.50 when the head of the procession of the concert in the grand stand the Mayor read a letter of regretting his inability to be present, and also the letter from the Queen to Lord Aberdeen, given in another column.

At the conclusion of the concert in the grand stand the Mayor read a letter of regretting his inability to be present, and also the letter from the Queen to Lord Aberdeen, given in abother column.

At the conclusion of the concert in the grand stand the Mayor read a letter of regretting his inability to be present.

At the conclusion of the concert in the grand stand the Mayor read a letter of regretting his inability to be present.

At the conclusion of the concert in the grand stand the Mayor read a letter of regretting his inability to be present.

At the conclusion of the concert in the grand stand the Mayor read a letter of regretting his inability to be present.

At the conclusion of the concert in the grand stand the Mayor read a letter of regretting his inability to be present.

At the conclusion of the concert in the grand stand the Mayor read a letter of regretting his inability to be present.

At the conclusion of the concert in the grand stand the Mayor read a letter of regretting his inability to be present.

At the conclusion of the c

Never were Toronto's down-town streets more corrected or more orderly than last might.

London, June 22.—It was 9.50 when the head of the procession passed Buckingham Palace. It was led by Capt. Ames, of the Second Life Guards, one of the tailest men in the British Army, who, by the special wish of the Prince of Wales, rode in front of the procession. He was followed by four of the tailest troopers in that regiment of very tail men. The Naval brigade following, in straw hats, and carrying drawn cutlassess, also met with a rousing reception.

The Little Princes and Princesses.

An interesting feature of the procession was furnished by the little Princes and Princesses, who filled the first carriage, The girls, dressed in white, bowed right and left, with the aplomb of their elders, and the boys, in Highland costume, saluted in the most approved style.

A Nice Feature.

The gorgeous uniforms and splendic horses of the escort of princes, who rode by threes, made this part of the showthe feature of the endire procession. At their head were the Marquis of Lorne, son-in-law of the Prince of Wales. The former wore a dark blue uniform and the latter was dressed in a red uniform.

The Princes' escort, wearing a naval uniform and the latter was dressed in a red uniform.

The Princes' escort, wearing a naval uniform. By the side of the Duke of York vere the Crown Erince of Wales. The former wore a dark blue uniform and the latter was dressed in a red uniform.

The Princes' escort, wearing a naval uniform and the Order of find farter, while his children, on the main balcony of the Palace, wave the hands to him. By the side of the Duke of York were the Crown Erince of Wales. The former wore a dark blue uniform and the Order of find and prince Waldemar of Crumark. Then came Prince Henry of the San and Princes' escort, wearing a naval uniform and the Order of find princes of the Princes' escort, wearing a naval uniform. The Princes' escort, wearing a naval uniform. The Princes' escort, wearing a naval uniform so the prince of

The

Store Stock and Prices ...

THE city is full of visitors this week. Many reasons combine to make a visit to this great retail headquarters desirable. You'll like to say on your return home that you have visited Simpson's-so different from other stores, so much to be seen.

The decorations of Jubilee Day still hold. The store is a picture inside. See the big crown hanging in the well. See the Jubilee window—the talk of the town.

You like to shop at a store where you can save money, and that is inducement for everyone to visit the Big Store. Values very special.

Colored Dress Goods.

Balance of Fancy Dress Patterns, some very stylish designs, were $10, clearing at ... 4.00
41-in. Silk and Wool Two-toned Lustre, light shades, in blue, grey, fawn and green, reg. $1.10, for ... 85c
44-in. Silk and Wool Pink and Blue Shot Lustre, reg. 85c, for ... 50c
41-in. Silk and Wool Fink and Blue Shot Lustre, reg. 85c, for ... 50c
42-in. Fine Plaids, Silk and Wool, reg. 75c, for ... 50c
42-in. French Plaids, Silk and Wool, reg. 75c, for ... 50c
42-in. Flowered Grenadine, all-wool, reg. 80c, for ... 50c
42-in. Flowered Grenadine, all-wool, reg. 80c, for ... 50c
42-in. Flowered Grenadine, all-wool, reg. 80c, for ... 50c
42-in. Flowered Grenadine, all-wool, reg. 80c, for ... 50c
44-in. Fancy Mohair Mixture, styllah patterns, reg. $1.50, for ... 85c
44-in. Fancy with bright mohair patterns, reg. $1.50, for ... 85c Colored Dress Goods. | Specials in Cloak Dept.

Special Features of Muslin Section.

We have marked several lines of very desirable materials at prices that must necessarily mean quick selling. Let customers also accept notice of the opening of a special shipment of fine organdies—the real French goods. Shop as early as possible in this section these busy days for muslin goods are in large demand.

silver metal, all this line, either navy blue, myrtle, green on black grounds, reg. retail price 30c, our special price.

Finest of Sheer Organdies, repeats of some of our famous styles, all several positively new and solid colors of black, linen green, yellow and pink, the latter are very popular over white and colored foundations. Hoing to match; this will be the final shipment of these goods, on sale Thursday......

The Store for Fine Shoes.

Where there can never be any questioning the unusual values that are constantly offered in the shoe section of this store, there

Not a Cent of Profit

We are going to make June's last week an epoch marker in the history of modern retailing-because friend will tell friend of the new goodness of the clothing we are selling at prices too good to miss.

->mmmmmmmk OUR TWEED SUITS AT $2.50 FOR MEN are serviceable and well made—the price doesn't represent the cost of goods and trimmings.

Even the most elaborate styles are priced amazingly cheap, and good taste has ruled the making of every lot. Good shoes, hats and furnishings equally cheap.

SPECIAL FOR THURSDAY

stock, comprising best English 4-ply linen, all styles and shapes, regular price 20c, reduced to loc each, or 50c Your choice of our entire Collar

SPECIAL FOR THURSDAY

SPECIAL FOR THURSDAY

SPECIAL FOR THURSDAY Your choice of our entire Cuff stock, comprising best English 4-ply linen, round or square corners, for link or buttons; reg. price 25c pair, reduced to 15c, or 4 pairs for Boys' 2-piece Suits—A complete range of patterns and sizes from 22-in. to 26-in. chest, in dark brown, fawn, steel and Oxford grey shades, pleated front, plain back, Prussian collar style coat, pants well lined. Selling price $2,49, reduced to —

190 pairs Men's Fine American calf lace and Congress Boots. new chocolate and ox blood colors, McKay and Goodyear sewn, all sizes; regular $2.00 to $3.00, reduced to Smokers can get all the choice brands of Cigars and Tobaccos'at the new and enarged cigar department—Queen street entrance—prices unusual.

~>mmmmmmm. PHILIP JAMIESON, The Rounded Corner, Queen and Yonge Sts.

The Patrick of the shore section of this story, there was a street in hard time. The proper is the shore of the shore section of this story, there was a street in his hard time. The proper is the shore of the shore section of this story there was a street in his hard time. The proper is the shore of the shore section of this story there was a street in his hard time. The proper is the shore of the shore section of this story there was a street in the shore of the shore