JACK ATKIN WINS QUEEN'S COUNTY HANDICAP

Rifleman is Second and Spooner Third—Fine Day and Fast Track for Saturday's Races.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Jack Atkin, winner of the Carter Handicap, today duplicated his victory by easily winning the Queen's County Handicap at Aqueduct, defeating a high-class field of horses. Jack Atkin was quoted at 7 to 1 in the betting, and he ran the distance—one mile—in 1:28, the fastest time of the meeting. Rifleman, who finished second, met with a lot of interference, losing considerable ground, but came very strong at the finish. Restigouche and Welbourne were both added starters, with the former favorite all the way to the finish. Restigouche, a handicap over the long course, resulted in an easy victory for the second choice, Pocket. The order remained unchanged to the stretch, where Spooner began to tire and Jack Atkin, taking command, won easily. Rifleman closed and best Spooner half a length for the place. Restigouche finished a bad last. The Glendale Steeplechase, a handicap over the long course, resulted in a straight betting only, and both received a heavy pull.
