CANNOT ARREST SHARPE.

Leader of Fanatics is Surrounded by Armed Band.

WINNIPEG, July 7.—(Western Associated Press.)—A detachment from

Antler, Sask., where old James Sharpe and his band of fanatics from the United States, are in camp, says the mounted police are having a hard time arresting the leaders. The band are well armed and will only allow one policeman at a time inside their camp.

It is impossible to reason with them and they say they will not be taken alive. The women are as bad as the men and are full of fight. The question to be solved is how to arrest the leaders without causing bloodshed, as there are a number of women and children in the party.

Every effort is being made to have them taken back whence they came—

North Dakota—but the leader is obdurate and insists that he will go to Yorkton to lead the Doukhobors.

The following report was received for the policy yesterday, written by the Virgin Mary, dictated by Jesus Christ:

"To be bloodshed is sound judgment. If you are determined to take me dead or alive, I would rather you would shoot me from ambush and not

"BRYAN, BRYAN" NOW
SLOGAN OF CONVENTION

Tide of Sentiment Steadily Grows

In Favor of the Man From Nebraska.

DENVER, Colo., July 7.—With cheers from ten thousand throats, with the swell of political oratory and the inspiring spectacle of a vast multitude of people, the Democratic National Convention began its deliberations today. The session, lasting a little over two hours, was for the most part a series of resolutions and speeches of rather than for the business accomplished. It gave, however, the opportunity for the showcasing of the convention enthusiasm, the keynote speech of the temporary presiding officer, Theodore A. Bell, of California, a heated skirmish incidental to the contest in the Pennsylvania delegation, and finally, a unanimous tribute of homage paid to the memory of the late Grover Cleveland.

Immediately after being called to order at 8:30 o'clock, the platform of the committee of the Democratic National Convention proceeded to carry out the wishes of Mr. Bryan electing

Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma as permanent chairman.

Richmond Pearson Hobson, congressman from Alabama, presented a plea for the increase of the navy, and doing so declared that this country is in imminent danger of war with Japan. He predicted that this war would take place during the next presidential administration, and believing that the Democratic party will then be in power, he said that if it did not make proper preparations by additions to the navy the party would be ground to powder. Mr. Hobson said that he based his statements on inside information.

The initial outburst of enthusiasm came just as the session was opening when a banner bearing the name of Bryan was displayed. Immediately there was a storm of wild applause, which died away after half a minute of explosive demonstrations.

The appearance of the temporary presiding officer, Bell, was greeted with a signal for enthusiastic outburst. He came forward amid the storm of tributes, tall and sturdy, immaculately attired, with a stern, im-
